Club asks fans not to travel to Portugal tie

RANGERS are asking their supporters NOT to travel to Portugal for their UEFA Cup tie against Boavista on Tuesday, November 4.

The club are discouraging fans from making the trip to Porto — but if you are adamant about going, Rangers want to be in full control.

Secretary Campbell Ogilvie told the 'News': "Once again, I would impress upon people that we do appreciate the good record of behaviour our supporters have enjoyed in Europe over the past years.

"But it takes only one or two to step out of line and our future in this UEFA Cup and any future European competition could be in jeopardy. That is why we are masterminding the travel arrangements of clubs who insist on following the team."

SFA Security Adviser Alistair Hood will be in charge of the operation and all Rangers Supporters Clubs making the trip are asked to get in touch with the Ibrox Ticket Office as soon as possible for the necessary forms.

All coaches will be numbered and Rangers will require one person responsible for each bus to liaise with their security operation.

Claim

The club will be meeting with the Scottish Office and the bus companies and will be in close contact on a regular basis with the British Transport Police, Portuguese Police and the British Consulate in Porto.

Rangers will also be utilising their new computer facilities for the operation with all relevant information about those travelling fed into the system and relayed to the authorities.

Meanwhile, it looks as though Rangers have lost their claim to have the first leg of the second round tie switched to Tuesday, October 21 — the game now looks likely to take place on the Thursday, just three days before the Skol Cup Final.

RANGERS' AGM AT SECC

THE NEW date for the re-convened Rangers Annual General Meeting is Wednesday, October 29.

The AGM had to be aborted on September 19 when the Mitchell Theatre was not big enough to hold all the shareholders who turned up in unprecedented numbers.

This time, the venue is the Scottish Exhibition and Conference Centre in Finnieston Street, Glasgow which is more than large enough to accommodate all Shareholders.

As the last meeting was not completed, all competent business will have to be restarted with directors Jack Gillespie, David Holmes, Hugh Adam and Freddie Fletcher all being put forward for re-election.

Secretary Cambell Ogilvie said: "We know only too well that shareholders would have made special arrangements to enable them to attend the last meeting and once again we apologise to them. This time, the SECC will provide no problems for us."

FIRM BOOST FOR STEVE

This is how to do it!

● SHOWING THE WAY . . . the amazing Steve Fonyo displays fine ball control at Ibrox as admiring Chris Woods, Colin Miller, Alan McInally, Terry Butcher and Brian McClair look on.

THE amazing Steve Fonyo was at Ibrox last week when he received an 'Old Firm' boost to his one-man battle against cancer.

Football crazy Steve tragically lost his left leg through the killer disease when he was only 12 years old — but the resilience he has shown since then has been truly humbling.

Two years ago, he raised an astonishing THIRTEEN MILLION dollars for Cancer Research by walking the 5,000 miles across his native Canada.

Not content with that effort, however, Steve planned a walk in Britain from Edinburgh to London when the disease struck his father.

He aims to raise £1 million on the way and he made a good start last week at Ibrox when he was accompanied on a walk out of Govan by Terry Butcher, Colin Miller and Chris Woods of Rangers and Celtic's Brian McClair and Alan McInally.

Canadian World Cup man Colin said: "The guy is a living legend in Canada. he really is amazing and deserves all the support people can give him."

* * *

ALLY McCoist will be turning his attention away from football at the end of the month — to help charity.

But, before goalkeepers breath a sigh of relief, we'd better explain that the Rangers star will not be hanging his boots up, but is in fact taking party in a special fund-raising night.

The sharpshooter will be throwing darts in aid of the Paul Rafferty Fund, an organisation which raises money for the brain scan unit at Yorkhill Hospital in Glasgow.

Ally will be joining other celebrities from football and variety in a special match against local darts players on October 30 at the Liberal Club, Paisley.

A cabaret dance will be held after the competition with comedy duo 'Spangles' and singer May Harold on the bill.

* * *

RANGERS have appointed a new manager for their ever-increasingly busy Ticket Office at Ibrox.

His name is Matthew Cook and he succeeds Alistair Kennedy who left three weeks ago.

● SHAKE ON IT . . . Young Rangers Club member Lorraine Fleming from Hamilton was the lucky youngster to win our competition to present the silver trophy to the YRC 'Player of the Year'. Ally McCoist was top of the kids' poll and here he receives the cup from Lorraine at Ibrox.

● MATTHEW COOK . . . new ticket-office manager.

Matthew, who comes from Johnstone, was previously with J. and P. Coates in Paisley for 25 years and then Villware Packaging for two.

He told the 'News': "I actually applied for the job at Ibrox back in Feburary but when Alister left, I received the call to take up the post if I was still interested — I didn't have to think long about it!

"It's extremely hectic in here just now and I couldn't have been thrown in at the deep end more. But that's the best way and I'm thoroughly enjoying the job."

BOB MOFFATT

RANGERS were saddened to hear of the recent death of one of the club's greatest supporters, Bob Moffatt, at the age of 77.

Bob was something of a legend in his native Belfast and he followed Rangers all over the world.

He first watched Rangers in action in the early 1920s and from 1927 onwards never missed a Scottish Cup Final the club were involved in.

He was the man who started the 1st Rangers Supporters Club in Northern Ireland and that started a chain reaction of many branches being founded throughout the province with members who, like Bob, travelled to Ibrox for every match.

Bob was regarded by many at Ibrox as almost part of the club itself and he leaves many famous names mourning his passing, including Willie Thornton, Willie Waddell, John Greig, Bobby Shearer, and more recently John McClelland.

SPOTLIGHT ON TONIGHT'S INTERNATIONALS

NICHOLL'S WORRIED ABOUT HIS PLACE!

Terry'll not be friendly this evening

FOR 90 minutes tonight at Wembley, Terry Butcher will be locked in aerial combat with Colin Clarke.

But while they will be battling furiously against each other during the game, the Rangers skipper is looking forward to renewing his friendship with the Northern Ireland striker.

Clarke is the new sensation of the English First Division where he is rattling in the goals for Southampton — but his connection with Terry goes a long way back.

Terry told the 'News': "Colin was an apprentice at Ipswich Town and I used to give him a lift to training everyday in the car. He's a smashing bloke and I'm delighted to see him doing so well."

Happy

Clarke was rejected by Ipswich but after several seasons of obscurity in the lower divisions with Tranmere and Bournemouth, he hit the big time this summer with his £400,000 move to the Dell and his fine World Cup displays for Northern Ireland in Mexico.

Says Terry: "I don't intend giving him an inch at Wembley if I can help it but I'll be quite happy to buy him a drink for old time's sake after we have picked up two points!

"It's going to be very difficult against the Irish — they always play well against us and as far as I'm concerned they are still a grossly under-rated football nation.

"Their record in recent seasons is nothing short of brilliant when you consider their resources.

"From an England point of view, we will be under all sorts of pressure from the press and the fans after the game against Sweden but, to be perfectly honest, we are all used to that.

"I would much rather our opening game had been in Belfast, but the decision was made to switch the tie and we will just have to make sure we get the right result.

"They are sure to try and frustrate us and it would be ideal for us to get an early goal. If we do that, then I'm sure we will win the match."

Where and when

YOU CAN see live coverage of the Eire-Scotland match on BBC 2 this afternoon (Wednesday).

Archie MacPherson is the commentator for the game which kicks-off at 3.30 p.m. at Lansdowne Road.

But if you miss the live coverage, there will be highlights later in the evening at 10 p.m. on International Sportscene where there will also be action from the games between England-Northern Ireland and Luxembourg-Belgium.

On the radio, David Francey and John Greig will provide live coverage from Dublin on BBC Radio Scotland.

● JIMMY NICHOLL . . . position under threat from Gary Fleming.

Jimmy's got a bit of competition

FOR THE first time since he came onto the international scene for Northern Ireland, Jimmy Nicholl is worried about losing his place in the team.

Rangers 29-year-old full-back admitted this to the 'News' in a candid interview as he previewed tonight's European Championship Group Four clash between England and Northern Ireland at Wembley.

Jimmy revealed: "It's a bad thing to say, really, but over the past few years I have taken my place in the Northern Ireland side for granted — and I think that's been the case with a lot of our players.

Excellent

"Because the squad virtually picks itself, there isn't a lot of competition for places and because of that I have been pulling on the number two jersery time after time without much thought.

"Now, though, there's a young right-back at Nottingham Forest called Gary Fleming in the squad and he looks an excellent prospect.

"In fact, before the squad for the England game was announced last week I was worrying for the first time for ages about being named in it.

"Young Gary has presented me with competition for the right-back spot and I reckon if I play against England it will be thanks to my move to Rangers.

"Billy Bingham, despite the fact that he is now based in Saudi Arabia, knows if I'm with Rangers that I'm competing at top level every week and that, along with my experience, should get me my place in the team for Wembley.

The plucky Irish will, as ever, go into tonight's match with no fears about the opposition and in complete confidence that they can obtain a good result.

"We always do well against England and they were very lucky to take three points off us in the World Cup qualifying group last time around.

"I'm quite pleased that the first match is at Wembley as it seems to bring the best out of us and I reckon we can come away from the game with a draw at the least.

"The pressure is all on England as they are expected to win every game they play by their public and if we can hold them for the opening half our or so and get the crowd to turn against them, we are in with a great chance."

● TERRY BUTCHER

● DAVIE COOPER

Scotland can get two points

DAVIE Cooper was the man everyone was pinpointing as the player who could inspire Scotland to European Championship victory against Eire in Dublin this afternoon.

Sadly, however, the Rangers winger had to pull out of the international squad on Saturday when a groin strain he has been carrying for a fortnight flared up towards the end of the match against Hibs.

It's a severe blow to Andy Roxburgh's plans as Super Cooper has been in such brilliant form of late and, against Hibs, was once more outstanding before having to leave the field late in the match.

But Davie, while sorely disappointed at having to miss out on Lansdowne Road, believes Scotland can still pick up two points against Jack Charlton's Irishmen.

He told the 'News': "Despite what people have said, the goalless draw against Bulgaria was not a disaster although it certainly was disappointing. But if we get a win in Dublin, the same people will be in a totally different mood.

"They have a lot of good players and there is a general feeling that they can come good in this competition — but Scotland have something to prove too in the European Championship and we are determined to do well.

Frustrate

"This will be a typical 'British' sort of game and all the lads in our squad know all about playing a tough, competitive match away from home in front of a partisan crowd.

"They are bound to come at Scotland at 100 miles an hour at the start but if we can frustrate them in the early stages there is no reason why Scotland can't take control of the match.

"A draw would be a good result for Scotland but, to be honest, if they play well there's no reason why they shouldn't win."

THE LATE SHOW

Souness sets-up Cooper's late goal v Saints

A LATE injection of Souness sparkle earned Rangers two very valuable and welcome points at Love Street last Wednesday night.

The Ibrox player-manager had sidelined himself to the subs' bench for the match against St. Mirren but at the end of the night had to disregard his calf injury and enter the fray.

Struggle

When the boss joined the action in the 84th minute, Saints and Rangers were locked at 0-0 in a dour struggle which had seen rare flashes of the kind of football we have already come to expect from the Light Blues, but no goals to show for it.

Two minutes after the grand entrance, Souness struck a sweet through ball into the Saints penalty-area which deceived the unfortunate Tommy Wilson.

Davie Cooper strode onto the pass, steadied himself and looked up before lashing a low shot past the previously invincible Campbell Money into the corner of the net from a tight angle.

Shot

That was enough to give the Light Blues both points, but earlier on the heroics of Money in Saints' goal had looked enough to frustrate the Ibrox men.

In the ninth minute, he made an instinctive diving stop from a Robert Fleck shot which looked net-bound all the way following a good move involving Terry Butcher and Ally McCoist.

In the second half, he held a Davie Cooper shot following a superb run into the penalty-area by the winger — but in the 56th minute came one of the best saves you'll see this season.

St. Mirren . . . 0
Rangers 1

Derek Ferguson picked out Ally McCoist in the box with a super little chip-cross from the right and when Ally rose to power in a header the cries of "Goal!" were already in the air.

Deserved

A draw would possibly have been a fair result, but that touch of class at the end with the combination of Souness and Cooper just deserved the two points for Rangers.

It was the Light Blues first Premier League win at Love Street since October 1984 and was all the more welcome for that.

Foul

The one big disappointment for Rangers was the highly-contentious booking of David McPherson.

An ever-present for the Light Blues this season, the yellow card shown by referee O'Donnell for a foul on McGarvey means that the big defender will miss the Skol Cup Final on October 26.

Light Blues coast to easy victory

THE magical skills of Davie Cooper sparkled in the October sunshine on Saturday as Rangers cruised to their most comfortable Premier League win of the season so far.

This really was a walk in the park for the Light Blues and their performance never had to be anything more than just good to pick up two points against Hibs.

Satisfied

The Easter Road men were never seriously in the game and had Rangers stepped up a gear, they might have won more handsomely.

However, there can be no complaints about such a victory and the near 40,000 crowd who witnessed Saturday's 90 minute were highly satisfied that Graeme Souness has Rangers on course for a real title challenge.

The man himself may dispute that and is still ready to go into the transfer market again, but the players already at Ibrox are continuing to produce the goods.

Souness only played for 50 minutes before going off to be replaced by Dougie Bell but by that time he had satisfied himself that Rangers were on their way to victory and had erased any of the bad memories from Easter Road back on August 9.

There was never any chance of a repeat of that debacle with Rangers destroying Hibs on Saturday with a powerful brand of skilful football in which Davie Cooper was the principal architect.

We had to wait until the 59th minute for the second goal but it was well worth it as Davie Cooper and Ally McCoist contrived a magnificent exchange of passes on the left.

Ally blazed a trail to the by-line and his low cross was perfect for Robert Fleck to easily trail a shot past Rough into the corner of the net from eight yards.

The third goal in the 73rd minute was started and finished by the impressive Dougie Bell who sent Ally McCoist clear on the left. This time his cross was headed down by Robert Fleck to Ian Durrant and when his shot was blocked, Dougie Bell rammed in the rebound to complete a highly satisfactory afternoon's work for Rangers.

Wedding bells for Stuart...

● STUART BEATTIE

WHILE Stuart Beattie hasn't yet broken through to first-team recognition under Graeme Souness, he recently took part in the biggest match of his life!

The 19-year-old defender married his fiancee of two years, Frances, in a quiet ceremony in Irvine on Friday, October 4.

Stuart and Frances then spent their honeymoon in Blackpool at the weekend before the tall youngster returned to Ibrox to resume the battle to be involved in the first-team plans.

Stuart told the 'News': "We have been planning to get married for a while and now seemed the best time. We will probably go abroad next summer for a real honeymoon but Frances realises the demands that are on a footballer.

By 'News' Reporter

Delighted

"However, we are both delighted and the only thing that could make me happier is to get involved with the first team. To be honest, I have been very disappointed not to have made any impression on the new boss yet.

"Last season I wasn't far away from getting a regular spot in the back four but now I've got it all to do again — but I expected that. I'm prepared to keep working in the reserves but really, to be honest, time is against me.

Priority

"This is the last year of my contract at Ibrox and my priority is to secure a future in the game. I have to know that I still have a future with Rangers.

"It's up to me to produce the goods regularly in the second team but I am as confident in my own ability as I have ever been and I'm looking to make progress very soon."

ASSOCIATION BOYS CLUB

Rangers.....8 Motherwell.....0

RANGERS Under-10's ran amok in this League Cup tie at Queens Park on October 5.

The Light Blues hit men were Denham (36, 41), Mitchell (46, 51), Drummond (39), Watret (44), Dearie (50), and Allen (30).

RANGERS: McKinnon, Drummond, Howden, Page, Drennan, King, Mitchell, Watret, Allan, Denham, McDonald. Subs were Hendry (for Allan), Dearie (for McDonald), and Jarvis (not used).

Rangers.....10 Drumchapel Ams..0

IT WAS almost a one man show in this League cup tie at Holyrood School on October 5.

For the Light Blues number nine, Gow, scored no fewer than five times in a goal feast which never really saw Rangers Under-12's troubled.

Scorers were Gow (28, 38, 52, 58, 69), Brown (19, 63), Thomson (9, 44), Rannachan (68).

RANGERS: Bruce, Hendry, Rannachan, McWilliams, Johnston, Brown, McLeod, Cooper, Gow, Campbell, Thomson. Sub was Clarke (for Thomson).

Woodside.....1 Rangers.....3

IN AN excellent match Rangers Under-13's eventually triumphed but not after a gritty show from Woodside.

The League Cup tie on October 5 at Maryhill saw the Light Blues take the lead in the 10th minute when Gardiner netted with a superb left foot drive. Rangers went on to dominate the first half but couldn't score again.

In the second half Woodside stepped up a gear and it was no surprise when they equalised soon after the restart. However, Rangers fought back and Haining gave them the lead once more with a header in the 50th minute.

A ten yard shot from Carmichael in the 55th minute finally killed off the Woodside hopes.

RANGERS: Kyle, Patrick, McGowan, Russell, Raeburn, Bell, Carmichael, Forbes, Haining, Thomson, Gardiner. Subs were Stewart (for Bell), and Johnston (not used).

Blue Star.....0 Rangers.....12

THE Blue Star certainly didn't shine for the home side in this League Cup tie last week at Easterhouse.

As the lights went out in their hopes, Rangers Under-14's proceeded to score a dozen in a totally one sided event. Edward Annand, or 'Super Ted', earned his tag with a magnificent six goal show. His goals came in the 8, 14, 26, 28, 45, and 55th minutes.

Gary Gourlay, meanwhile, was contenting himself with a fine hat-trick in the 12th, 35th and 60th minutes. The other scorers were Steven Gold (20, 42) and Stuart Duff (64).

RANGERS: Allison, Gallagher, Gordon, Patrick, Meldrum, Gold, Gourlay, Duff, Annand, Chatham, Robertson. Subs were Currie (for Robertson) and Simmons (for Duff).

St. Stephen's.....0 Rangers.....6

TWO men ran this League Cup tie on October 5 for Rangers Under-16's.

Ian McPhee and Ian Corbett both netted twice as the home side were hit for six at Sighthill. Gary Tolmie opened the scoring in the third minute with a 10 yard shot. Two minutes later McPhee got off the mark with an eight yard drive.

Goal number three came in the 44th minute via the head of Corbett. The same player made it 4-0 in the 72nd minute when he shot home from 10 yards. McPhee then got his own second and Rangers fifth in the 80th minute before Jason Grieve got the sixth from the penalty spot in the 82nd minute.

RANGERS: Gough, Grieve, Lloyd, Degnan, Rogerson, Mulholland, Tolmie, Govan, McMillan, Corbett, McPhee. Subs were Howat (for McMillan), and Jenkins (for Mulholland).

● MAXWELL Testo and Douglas Govan were out on trial with Dundee a fortnight ago and both played in a bounce match which ended in a 4-3 win. Testo scored twice. Maxwell will also be travelling down to Barnsley for a week's trial. Douglas Govan, meanwhile, trained with Rangers last season.

LIGHT BLUE LOOKBACK . . . the news from 25 and 50 years ago

Jerry saves club and country . . .

October 15-21, 1936

JERRY Dawson was a man inspired this week fifty years ago as his agility saved red faces for both club and country.

Dawson kept Queens Park at bay in a 1-1 draw and then four days later frustrated the English League at Goodison Park.

Confident

Rangers travelled to Hampden Park on October 17 to face Queens in the league confident of getting the points, but it was to be a bizarre goal which gave them a share of the spoils.

A free-kick some 40 yards out gave Cheyne the chance to fire into the box. The Queens keeper, White, came out to collect but to his horror could only watch as the ball bounced over him and into the net. There was only seven minutes left.

Queens, though, fought back and equalised through Kyle in the 84th minute. On the whole it had been a terrible performance from Rangers, with Dawson the sole player to receive pass marks.

QUEENS PARK: White, Campbell, Dickson, Buchanan, Gardiner, Brown, Lawrie, Martin, Dodds, Kyle, Write.

RANGERS: Dawson, Gray, Cheyne, Kennedy, Simpson, Brown, Souter, Venters, Smith, McPhail, Kinnear.

Aberdeen stayed at the top of the league courtesy of a 3-2 victory over Queen of the South at Palmerston Park. The Dons were four points ahead of Rangers but had played two games more.

Celtic were in third position despite only drawing 0-0 with Dundee at Dens. Motherwell, in fourth place, went down 2-1 at home to Third Lanark, while fifth place Hearts also lost, 3-0 to St Johnstone at Muirton.

The top of the table looked like this:

	P	W	D	L	F	A	Pt
Aberdeen	14	10	3	1	38	15	23
Rangers	12	7	5	0	26	9	19
Celtic	13	8	3	2	27	15	19
Motherwell	13	8	1	4	33	21	18
Hearts	13	7	2	4	31	23	16

On October 21, the Scottish League side travelled to Liverpool to take on England in the home championships and they were to suffer in a 2-0 defeat.

A Baston penalty and another strike from Westwood finished off the Scots. As the 34,000 crowd shouted for more goals, Jerry Dawson defied the English strikers with a series of wonder saves. Also representing Rangers that day were George Brown, Dave Kinnear, and Bob McPhail.

CROWD PULLERS!

Record attendance at Frankfurt match

October 15 - 21, 1961

RANGERS and Eintracht Frankfurt clashed this week 25 years ago and in an electrifying match produced five goals for a record-breaking crowd.

A total of 104,679 fans packed Hampden on October 17 to watch the game which celebrated the opening of the new floodlights, and there was drama before it even began.

Great

Three fans were treated for cuts after one of the bulbs exploded high above and debris fell on the South West Terracing. Fortunately, there were no signs of panic in the biggest ever crowd to appear for an evening match.

The Rangers defence, however, showed signs of great concern more than once in a 3—2 defeat, their third to Eintracht.

The Germans scored the opener in the eighth minute when a Schamer cross found Kress at the near post and he promptly fired home from 12 yards. Schamer then made it 2—0 in the 18th minute with a brilliant run down the right wing and a lethal drive which left Ritchie grasping thin air.

Just when it seemed Rangers were completely out of it they gained a penalty. Wilson was fouled, but Ralph Brand fired wide of the goal. Eintracht made it 3—0 in the 49th minute with a Kreuz drive.

Superb

Rangers finally scored in the 53rd minute with a Davis header from a Scott corner. In sensational style Davis again netted only two minutes later with a superb header from a Baxter free-kick.

The Light Blues piled on the pressure but a combination of luck and excellent goalkeeping kept the Ibrox forwards at bay until the final whistle.

RANGERS: Ritchie, Shearer, Paterson, Davis, Caldow, Baxter, McMillan, Brand, Scott, Millar, Wilson.

EINTRACHT FRANKFURT: Loy, Lutz, Hoefer, Weilbacher, Eigenbrodt, Schymik, Kruez, Stinka, Kress, Stein, Schamer.

Glamour

Another glamour match was scheduled at the famous Glasgow ground between the Scottish League and their Italian counterparts on November 1. The Scottish side was chosen and included no fewer than six Gers — Caldow (capt), Baxter, Scott, Millar, Brand and Wilson.

Four days after their German conflict, Rangers travelled to Fir Park on league business and in front of a 25,000 crowd shared a 2—2 draw with Motherwell.

Dramatic

The home side got the first in the 38th minute with a Quinn penalty. The Light Blues equalised in the 77th minute when Davie Wilson shot home from a corner.

Then, in a dramatic last five minutes, both sides netted in a frantic finish. McPhee appeared to give 'Well the winner with a fine shot from a Hunter cross in the 85th minute. But, with only one minute on the clock, Ralph Brand popped up to equalise from close range.

MOTHERWELL: H. Weir, McSeveny, Thomson, Aitken, McCallum, McCann, McPhee, Quinn, Roberts, Hunter, A. Weir.

RANGERS: Ritchie, Shearer, Caldow, Davis, Paterson, Baxter, Scott, McMillan, Millar, Brand, Wilson.

Dundee remained at the top of the table by virtue of a 2—1 win at Dunfermline, although Rangers were close behind, lying second with a game in hand.

Third placed Partick Thistle lost 3—1 to Hibs at Easter Road, while Kilmarnock stayed fourth with a 4—1 home win over Dundee United. Celtic, meanwhile, lost 2—1 to Hearts at Tynecastle, but kept their fifth spot.

The top of the table looked like this:

	P	W	D	L	F	A	Pt
Dundee	8	7	0	1	24	12	14
Rangers	7	4	3	0	23	7	11
Partick This.	8	5	1	2	18	14	11
Kilmarnock	8	5	1	2	20	16	11
Celtic	8	4	1	3	18	11	9

A GAME TO REMEMBER!

TENNENT'S T LAGER

RANGERS fans have already ensured that Jimmy Simpson's Testimonial match will be one to remember — before the game itself, which takes place at Cappielow this Sunday, is played.

Morton manager Allan McGraw was on the line to the 'News' last week to pass on the thanks of the little midfielder whose career was tragically ended at the start of the season by a terrible leg injury.

Rangers supporters from Aberdeen and Fife, who regret they will be unable to make it to the game, have sent donations of around £160 to Jimmy.

Said McGraw: "The lad really appreciates the gesture and the fact that we have had so many Rangers fans on the phone to Cappielow enquiring about tickets for the game.

"It looks like it will be quite a day for Jimmy and he wants to thank the Rangers fans through the club newspaper."

Tickets for Sunday's game are priced at £2 for the terracing and £1 for Boys and OAPs and are available from Cappielow Park or by post.

Graeme Souness will take a strong Rangers side to Cappielow for what is sure to be an entertaining afternoon with Morton fielding several guest players.

They include Joe McLaughlin from Chelsea, West Ham's Neil Orr and Gary McAllister of Leicester City.

The game kicks-off at 3 p.m.

PAINFUL POINT FOR RESERVES

THIS was regarded as a point lost by coach Donald Mackay as Rangers reserves drew with Hibs at Easter Road last Thursday evening.

He said: "There wasn't enough fluency about our play and the lads just seemed to want to run with the ball as individuals instead of playing as a unit.

"With that in mind, I brought them back in for extra training on Friday morning and let them do some running which they didn't seem to enjoy quite as much!

"It was a game we really should have won, especially on the strength of the pressure we enjoyed in the second half."

Rangers never got going in the first half and the only goal was scored by Mark Caughey for Hibs.

The Ibrox lads improved after the break, however, and were rewarded in the 52nd minute when Ally Dawson broke clear as Hibs tried to break the offside trap and drove the ball low past John Ramage.

Rangers enjoyed a lot of pressure after that with Ronnie Yule missing a couple of good chances and Craig Paterson hitting the bar with a powerful header.

Angus McPherson won Donald Mackay's vote as 'Young Man of the Match'.

Cup match

GRAEME Souness took a seat along with some 2,000 fans at The Forum, Livingston, the Sunday before last, to watch the pride of Scottish basketball, Murray International Metals.

Accompanying him on his surprise visit was Daniella, his stunning wife. Both watched an exciting tussle of a European Cup tie with Inter Milan, the crack Italian outfit, the visitors.

The first round tie ended in an 83-83 draw, though unfortunately, MIM lost the second leg in Italy 103-83. There is no truth in the rumour that Alton Byrd is being transferred to Ibrox, because of his incredible ball skills! Graeme's visit was purely social.

● RANGERS reserves travelled to Perth last Monday evening for a special match to celebrate the opening of junior side Jeanfield Swifts new pitch.

In what Donald Mackay described as a good work-out in front of an amazing 2,500 crowd — the biggest in Perth for years — goals in each half
