IN FOCUS

COWDENBEATH

The last time Cowdenbeath came to Ibrox on League business was 'way back in 1933-34. The Fifers lost 3-1 . . . and were relegated that year.

They haven't been up in the top division since, although they did win the Second Division championship in 1939. But because of the war they never made it into the First Division, and when football resumed full operations again in 1946-47, the Fifers found themselves back in the Second Division.

CONFIDENT

But that's history. And it is the present that matters now for Cowdenbeath. Under the management of former Rangers outside-left Andy Matthew, the Fifers won promotion at the end of last season, finishing a point behind Falkirk.

And their results so far this term prove that the 1970 Cowdenbeath are no push-overs. They are through to the quarter-finals of the League Cup, and with a 1-0 advantage over Falkirk, and a home match to come on Wednesday, are confident of making the semi-finals.

PLAYER POOL

The Cowdenbeath team will probably come from the following pool of players:

Alan Wylie. Goalkeeper. 6 ft. 1 in., 12 st. 10 lbs. Joined the Fifers two years ago after being with Motherwell for many seasons.

Billy McLaughlan. Full back. 5 ft. 11½ in., 12 st. 10 lbs. A Fifer, he was signed from Dunfermline Jubilee Athletic in 1968.

Denis Jack. Full back. 5 ft. 7½ in., 11 st. 2 lbs. Longest serving club player, having been signed from Cowdenbeath Royals nine years ago.

Danny Ferguson. The ex-Hearts full back was given a surprise free from Morton at the end of last term after being a first-team man for most of the season.

Andy Kinnell. Centre-half. Joined the club six years ago from Sauchie Juveniles. He's 5 ft. 9½ in. and weighs 12 st. 8 lbs.

Jimmy Moore. 5 ft. 10 in., 11 st. 10 lbs. An ex-Dundee United player, he is in his third season with Cowdenbeath.

Billy Laing. 5 ft. 6 in., 11 st. Billy was a Rangers player up to the end of last season, and was a prolific scorer in the Ibrox reserves.

John Dickson. 5 ft. 7½ in., 10 st. Cowdenbeath's No. 1 striker, and a player who netted 34 times last season in the club's promotion run.

Billy Mullen. 5 ft. 10½ in., 12 st. 2 lbs. Very powerful in the air and works well with fellow striker Dickson. Ex-Kilsyth Rangers and in second season at Central Park.

Jimmy Taylor. 6 ft., 12 st. 11 lbs. Powerful, strong-running inside man who was signed in 1966 from St. Johnstone.

David Ross. Winger. 5 ft. 6 in., 10 st. Very tricky young 19-year-old. Particularly good on the ball.

Colin McCulley. Inside-forward or half-back. Great burst of speed, particularly over first 10 yards. Signed recently from Gairdoch United he's 5 ft. 8 in. and weighs 10 st. 7 lbs.

Manager Andy Matthew pours the champagne as Cowdenbeath celebrate in their dressing room after winning promotion at the end of last season.

● £50 LUCKY NUMBER ● PRIZE PIX ● AUTOGRAPHED BALLS

Three chances to win prizes . . .

There are three opportunities for supporters to win prizes at today's match . . . the £50 lucky magazine, Prize Pix and the new autographed ball competition.

THE £50 will be paid to the supporter who has the lucky winning number, which is displayed in the box at the bottom right hand corner of the front page.

The winning number will be announced over the loudspeaker system at half-time and displayed on boards round the track. If you have the winning magazine, bring it to the main entrance and you will be given the £50.

The last winner of the £50 was 16-year-old Ian Yule of 18 Pinkston Drive, Glasgow, N.1. The lucky number was 5870.

PRIZE PIX will also appear in every magazine. Two free stand seats will be given to the winners. Study the pictures on the opposite page. They were taken at the home match against Falkirk on September 5.

SUITABLE

If you have been singled out, by being featured inside the white circle, then you have won two centre stand seats for the next home match.

All you have to do is come to the main entrance after the match with your magazine, and after suitable identification, you will be given the tickets.

Mrs. Davren, 13 Amisfield Street, Maryhill, was a winner in the last Prize Pix competition.

AUTOGRAPHED BALLS will be given to the 20 fans who have match magazines corresponding with the numbers printed below. This replaces the previous system of the balls being kicked into the crowd before the match.

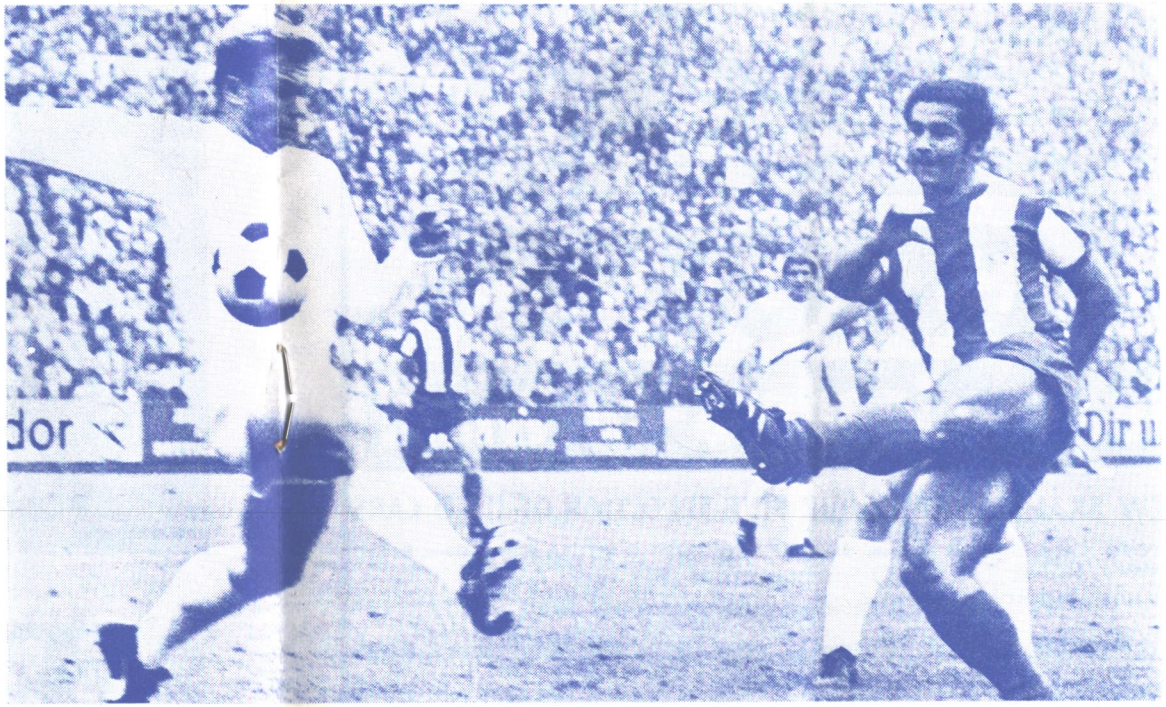

Study your programme number on the front page, if it is listed among the following you will receive a ball at the main entrance after the match: 3, 17, 42, 125, 280, 340, 450, 509, 600, 789, 901, 1132, 2794, 3841, 4008, 5916, 6341, 7525, 8800, 9091.

BAYERN'S BOMBER

The Bayern Munich fans have named him 'Der Bomber' . . . and that seems an appropriate name for the stocky little striker Gerd Muller. He's a German national hero as well after his performance in the Mexico World Cup where he finished the competition's top scorer. He's twice been Germany's 'Footballer of the Year', topped the scoring charts several times and has earned the 'Golden Boot' award for being Europe's No. 1 marksman as well. Muller is the man Rangers are going to have to watch well in the return leg of the Fairs Cup against Bayern at Ibrox on September 30.

POOLS TOP THE 500,000 MARK

"Amazing". That's how Mr. Alex Paterson, manager of the official Rangers Pools, describes the tremendous growth of the Pools already this season.

In only four weeks, the Pools have added 90,000 new clients . . . taking the total over the half-million mark.

Indeed, last week's Pools had a clientele of 510,000. This, of course, means bigger prize money as well. The total prize money for last week was more than £8,000 with the Pool. One sum of £6,403 being shared by five clients.

The clients, from Glasgow, Paisley, Airdrie, Larkhall and Kilmarnock each received £1,280 13 4d. with five agents getting £128 1 4d.

The snowball in Pool Five will be around the £800 mark—well worth winning. If you want to join the Rangers Pools as an agent, just fill in the form below. Any further particulars can be had by calling at the Pools Headquarters any Monday, Tuesday, Friday or Saturday.

SCORING 'TWINS' SHOOT DOWN CELTIC

Two victories and a defeat—that's the record of the Ibrox reserves in the past three matches.

And it was the win over Celtic reserves at Ibrox last Saturday which pleased coach Stan Anderson most of all.

Included in the Celtic line-up were experienced players like John Fallon, Jim Craig, David Cattanach, Steve Chalmers and Tommy Callaghan.

But the Ibrox colts were on top for most of the game, led 2-0 at the interval and finished up 2-1 winners.

The scorers were teenage strikers Derek Johnstone and Derek Parlane.

"These two boys, both around the 6 ft. mark, have been in great form," says coach Anderson.

Parlane (17) is a former Queen's Park player and 16-year-old Johnstone was signed from Dundee schools football.

The teams at Ibrox last week were:

Rangers—R. Watson; Alexander Mathieson; K. Watson, McCallum, Morrison; Henderson, Smith, D. Johnstone, Parlane, Semple. Sub—Donaldson.

Celtic—Fallon; Craig, Quinn; McCluskey, Davidson, Cattanach; Wilson, White, Chalmers, Dalglish, Callaghan. Sub—Hall.

Johnstone and Parlane were also the scorers in the Colts' other victory —the 2-1 win over Airdrie at Broomfield in the Second XI Cup.

Derek Johnstone is now the club's leading scorer with nine goals.

The team against Airdrie was:

R. Watson; Alexander, Mathieson; Morrison, McCallum, K. Watson; Henderson, Penman, D. Johnstone, Semple, Parlane. Sub—Donaldson.

The most disappointing result was the 3-0 defeat by Falkirk at Brockville.

"We never got into the game that day," says coach Anderson. "In most of our matches we have been making plenty of scoring chances, but not this time."

The team at Brockville was:

R. Watson; Alexander, Struthers; Smith, K. Watson, Morrison; Semple, Parlane, D. Johnstone, Walker, Renton. Sub—Donaldson.
