RANGERS NEWS

The Official Newspaper of Rangers F.C.

Wednesday, September 22, 1982. Issue 563.

JUST MAGIC!

RANGERS returned from West Germany last week delighted with the no score draw they had achieved against Borussia Dortmund in the UEFA Cup.

BUT WHAT PLEASED THE IBROX CLUB MOST OF ALL WAS THE BEHAVIOUR OF THEIR FANS.

The Light Blues' supporters had been warned beforehand to be on their best behaviour at all times while whey were abroad.

They heeded the warning perfectly.

A HIGH-RANKING WEST GERMAN POLICE OFFICER TOLD THE 'NEWS' THAT THERE WAS NOT ONE SINGLE ARREST AT THE MATCH – THE FIRST TIME THIS HAS HAPPENED FOR MANY YEARS IN THE COUNTRY.

Cheering

"Our supporters were tremendous," said manager John Greig.

"They backed us all the way, cheering us on throughout the whole game. And when we contacted the British consulate after the match we were told there hadn't been a single incident anywhere in the city, either before or during the game."

Happy

Naturally, that made Rangers happy because, as they had already pointed out in a letter to all their fans much earlier, UEFA would crack down very heavily on any incidents of misbehaviour.

So take a pat on the back those of you who were in Dortmund last week . . . and make sure you keep it up!

● Rangers manager John Greig presents a pennant to a soldier from the British Army of the Rhine football squad in Dortmund. Also in the picture are Assistant Boss Tommy McLean and Ibrox secretary Campbell Ogilvie.

RANGERS fans are reminded that seating arrangements for Pittodrie on Saturday have been changed.

Ibrox supporters will now be seated in the Beach end of the ground and this will enable them to enter the turnstiles nearest their own bus parks. They will not come into contact with Aberdeen fans around the ground either before or after the match.

The Dons have decided NOT to make the game all-ticket, so cash prices will be: CENTRE STAND £2.60; WING STAND £2; OTHER STANDS £1.50; BOYS AND OAP'S £1.

A REAL WINNER

AIN'T SHE PRETTY . . . and we're not talking about the two lovely models, Niki Heaney (left) and Carol Smillie.

We're talking about the superb £12,000 Mercedes Benz 200, which is on offer as a prize for the Tom Forsyth Testimonial Fund.

Tickets for the contest will cost £1 and entrants will have to judge how far the car goes on one gallon of petrol.

It looks a winner . . . just like Tom Forsyth and those two gorgeous ladies.

Cash for Borussia

DESPITE their excellent result in Dortmund, Rangers will not be making the second leg of their UEFA Cup-tie against Borussia all-ticket.

It will be cash for all sections of the ground with the following prices applying: CENTRE STAND, £6; REAR AND WINGS, £4; GOVAN STAND REAR, £5; GOVAN STAND FRONT, £4; COPLAND ROAD AND BROOMLOAN ROAD REAR, £4; FRONT SECTIONS, £3; ENCLOSURE, £2.50.

Special for Aberdeen . . .

● BRITISH Rail are running a supporters 'Special' to Pittodrie for the game against Aberdeen on Saturday.

The 'Specials' will leaves Glasgow Queen Street at 10.04 a.m. and will arrive in Aberdeen at 1.12 p.m.

The train for the return trip will leave Aberdeen at 5.20 p.m. and will arrive back at Glasgow Queen Street at 8.41 p.m.

● A second class return fare will be £10.50.

Light Blues looked good in UEFA debut

THE city of Dortmund is Europe's number one beer town and the good German citizens must have drunk a lot of their own product to drown their sorrows after last week's match against Rangers.

The normal stylish swagger of the Germans was halted by an Ibrox side displaying confidence and, most importantly, class.

There was no doubt this was one of the Light Blues' top performances in European competition. It was their first ever UEFA Cup tie, but if they can get the goals in the return at Ibrox, it certainly won't be their last.

Yes, this was a VERY good Ibrox display.

Polish

There was none of the wild clearances that are all too often seen by away sides in European competition. There was no indication of even a booking for the Rangers players.

And there was nothing but admiration for the Ibrox players from the German supporters.

INDEED, WITH A LITTLE MORE POLISH TO THEIR FINISHING TOUCHES, RANGERS MIGHT HAVE FINISHED UP WINNING THE GAME!

Derek Johnstone had what looked like a very good goal chalked off — the referee ruling his header had NOT crossed the line in the 75th minutes.

Forced

Davie Cooper took what was Rangers first corner of the night, DJ reached it and although Uber cleared it, the ball did look over the line.

Big Derek had also gone close in the 18th minute when he turned superbly and blasted in a right foot shot from ten yards, only for the ball to hit the bar.

And Immel was forced to make a fine diving save in the 25th minute when Russman lobbed the ball over his goalkeeper and it nearly went into the net.

Pressure

Jim Stewart wasn't exactly idle, either. he had to make a save at the feet of Raducanu in the 27th minute and then made another good save in the 81st minute from Burgsmuller as the Germans piled on the pressure in a bid to get a last gasp goal.

Every Ibrox player can take credit from the 90 minutes, but special mention must be made of three players — John McClelland, Craig Paterson and Jim Bett.

McClelland for yet another of the immaculate displays that we have now come to expect from him, Paterson for his intelligent use of the ball and Bett for controlling the midfield with ease.

NOW WE MUST WAIT TO SEE IF RANGERS CAN CAPITALISE ON THE FIRST LEG RESULT.

● CLOSE THING . . . Craig Paterson, and John McClelland combine to force the ball away from goal during this Dortmund raid.

● A PUNCH IN TIME . . . Jim Stewart clears the danger from Borussia's Bernd Klotz in the second half with Craig Paterson and Derek Johnstone in attendance.

● MY BALL . . . Craig Paterson clears the danger once more from the Ibrox penalty area.

THEY SAID IT

● JOHN GREIG: "It was a pleasing result for us although with the chances we made it could have been 5-4 instead of 0-0. Perhaps it would have been better to have come home with a 1-1 draw, but it's still a good result. The main thing is for the players to realise what they have to do in Glasgow and that they still have to win the game."

THEY SAID IT

● KARL-HEINZ FELDKAMP (Borussia Dartmund coach): "I was very impressed by Rangers and their fans. They controlled the ball well. My players are young and inexperienced and I think they were a bit scared of the crowd, however, it is only half-time in the game and we will go to Glasgow with high hopes."

from our top team in Dortmund

● NO CHANCE . . . The Ibrox defensive partnership of Paterson and McClelland thwart the goalscoring attempt by Rolf Russman.

IT WAS A GOAL!

THREE thousands Rangers fans thought it was a goal, the Ibrox players thought it was a goal and the Rangers officials were just as convinced it was a goal.

And big Derek Johnstone is in doubt that it WAS a goal.

We're talking about the incident when big DJ headed in a Cooper corner late in the second half and the ball appeared to cross the line.

But the ref said "no goal".

"I really thought it was a goal," said Derek. "Everybody else in the box at the time was sure that the ball crossed the line but you can't really argue with referees in that type of situation.

Troubled

"You just have to get on with it — and that's what we will have to at Ibrox."

Derek's form during the 90 minutes magnificent — yet he was playing only his second match since May!

He covered almost every blade of grass and, in the intense heat, that was quite something.

His very presence troubled the Germans and two defenders followed him everywhere he went. THEY PROBABLY WALKED INTO THE RANGERS DRESSING ROOM AT HALF-TIME!

● DEREK JOHNSTONE . . . Certain he'd scored the winner.

Bobby's biggest boost

TWO weeks ago Bobby Russell was walking around Ibrox with a limp-yet on Wednesday night he was one of the heroes who gave Rangers a great chance of qualifying for the next round of the UEFA Cup.

Bobby has been out of first team football since the Spurs match in August when he injured his toe and he only returned to the top team came for the last five minutes of the Dundee United two days before they left for Germany.

But Manager John Greig considered him vital to his plans so Bobby was included in the line-up for the Dortmund match.

Fight

"It's something I didn't expect," said Bobby after the game. "I've been out of football for so long and I hardly touched the ball against Dundee United. But when the Boss told me I was playing, it was the best boost I could have hoped for."

"Dortmund were a good side and like most German teams were very efficient and well organised," Bobby said.

"Their players seemed a little overawed by the occasion but still played well. We could have won the game but because not losing a goal was our main aim, we didn't snap our chances up as we would have done at Ibrox."

"My injury has fully cleared up, however, I know I've got a fight on my hands to get a place in the team with so many midfielders playing so well. But it's something I'm looking forward to, especially now we've got a great chance of going further in Europe."

● HOW DID I MISS THAT . . . Borussia players Meinholk Koch (standing), and Manfred Burgsmuller can only wonder what happened after missing an easy chance.

Disappointed John

JOHN MacDONALD missed his first game of the season against Borussia Dortmund — but not because of poor form

The wee striker was left out by boss John Greig for radical reasons, leaving just Davie Cooper and Derek Johnstone up front.

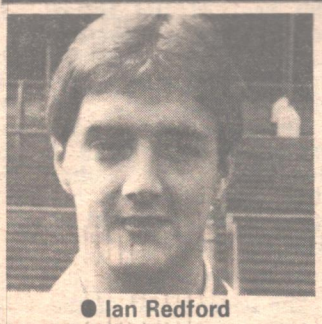
Yet the wee Rangers accepted the decision.

"I was disappointed, but whatever the Boss thinks is best I have to go along with," said John.

"Everyone loves playing in Europe, but if it helps the team get through, I can have no complaints. I'll just have to make up for not playing by scoring in the second leg — if I'm picked."

★ Rangers could be sending a team BACK to Borussia in the not too distant future. The Light Blues have been invited to send an Under-18 team to compete in a tournament next summer. Eight clubs would take part — Real Madrid, Red Star Belgrade Ajax, Bayern Munich, Stuttgart, Paris St. Germain and the hosts — plus Rangers if they agree to go.

WHY I MISSED THAT OPEN GOAL...



● Ian Redford

RANGERS, despite being under a great deal of pressure for the entire 90 minutes of their UEFA Cup tie against Borussia, still managed to create a few good chances.

Derek Johnstone had two, Jim Bett shot just past the post after a magic run and Bobby Russell and Davie Cooper came close. But Ian Redford was kicking himself after the game for missing a golden opportunity late in the second-half.

Cooper put 'Reddy' straight through and Ian had plenty of time to smash the ball home but it went just over the bar.

"It came on to my right foot, which is my weaker one and I took it a bit quickly. It wasn't until afterwards when I saw the game on TV that I realised how good a chance it was," Ian said.

"That made me a bit sick because a goal in Germany would have made all the difference in the return match at Ibrox."

THEY SAID IT

● SCOTS JOURNALIST AFTER HEARING THE GERMAN COACH'S COMMENTS: "Scared of the crowd? Just wait until they get to Ibrox!"

● DAVE MACKINNON: "I'll never forget the feeling of looking up to the terracing behind the goal and seeing all those Rangers' fans. It gave me a tremendous lift."

THEY SAID IT

● GERMAN REPORTER DURING THE GAME: "Who are these players? How many of them were in Spain? One! I don't believe it! They have so many good players, especially Bett, Prytz and MacKinnon. I think their build up, slowly from the back, is good. They will go far."

THEY SAID IT

● CRAIG PATERSON: "I didn't feel nervous. It was my first big European game, but I really enjoyed myself."

● SCOTS JOURNALIST AFTER THE GAME: "This has got to be one of the best performances I've ever seen from a Rangers' team."

All the news from West Germany

● SUPER SWEDE . . . Robert Prytz beats Jim Stewart during match practice on the morning of the Dortmund match.

PRESENT BIG JIM DIDN'T WANT . . .

RANGERS made their UEFA Cup debut in the Westfalen Stadium and Jim Stewart played his first ever away match for the Light Blues in Europe.

But the Westfalen Stadium was not a new one for the Ibrox goalkeeper.

He was there in 1974 with the Scotland World Cup squad when he was the only part-timer in the pool of 22.

"Scotland's opening game against Zaire was played there," he says.

Different

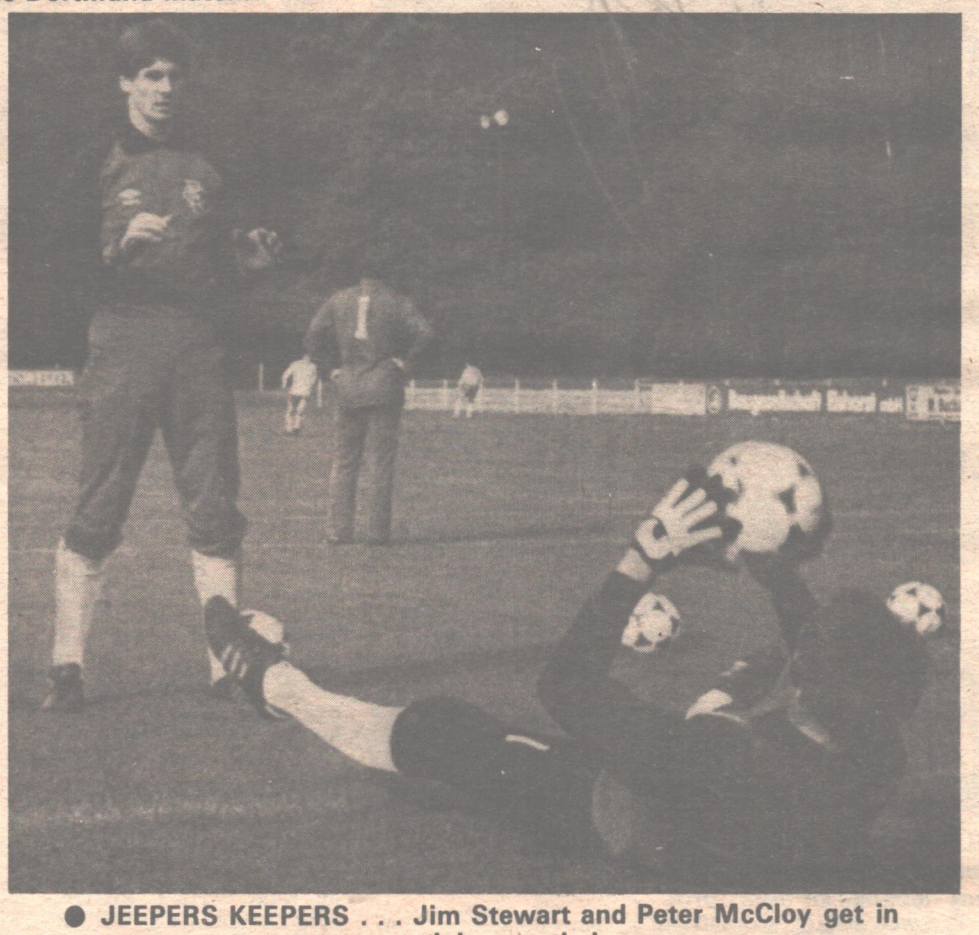
"But it was a totally different atmosphere this time.

"The 54,000 fans made so much noise I could hardly hear myself speak."

The Dortmund fans tried to make Jim feel welcome by exchanging 'gifts' . . . but he wasn't very happy about it!

"I got the usual things like toilet rolls thrown at me, but when Craig Paterson went down injured in the second half I found a billiard ball in the back of the net. There were even some cups of beer with the lid on."

Hopefully the Germans will choke on their beer after the second leg . . . and another magic performance from Jim could help Rangers achieve the victory they are looking for.



● JEEPERS KEEPERS . . . Jim Stewart and Peter McCloy get in some training on their own.

A 'News' report . . .

COLLECTORS of programmes will be pleased to hear that the Borussia matchday magazine was published at 1.5 marks — about 35 pence.

The programme contained 30 pages and, we're pleased to report, the 'News' came in for special attention!

A full page of the publication was devoted to a reproduction of our analysis of the West Germans just three weeks ago and all the pictures of the Ibrox squad came from the 'News' files.

Rangers fans who didn't make the trip were not able to see any highlights from the game against Borussia. Reason? The television companies won't screen action when one of the teams sports a sponsors' name on their jersey.

Borussia, who are sponsored by a glue company, wore their normal Bundesliga jerseys — ruling out British TV coverage.

Fans in Germany, however, saw the game. German TV screened highlights of SEVEN European matches on Wednesday evening, including Borussia v Rangers.

★ ★ ★ ★

It is thought that Borussia's receipts from the 54,000 capacity crowd was around £250,000.

★ ★ ★ ★

Ibrox boss John Greig will take his players to Troon to prepare for the second leg.

★ ★ ★ ★

The weather in Dortmund was always in the high 70's or low 80's but the Rangers squad didn't get too much of a chance to get a tan — they were banned from sunbathing on the Tuesday and Wednesday!

★ ★ ★ ★

One of the players favourite methods of relaxation was table tennis . . . but not the usual kind!

Robert Prytz taught the rest of the Ibrox squad to play Swedish ping-pong — which involves hitting the ball on your own side first.

Needless to say, Robert was pretty good at it but both Derek Johnstone and Jim Bett became quite proficient at it during the stay.

★ ★ ★ ★

The second-half of the match was held up for about four minutes by a Dortmund player.

Manfred Burgsmuller, ran from his own half into the Rangers penalty box and started waving the photographers away from behind the goal.

The cameramen were all positioned next to the side-netting and he was obviously worried about missing the target and hitting one of them! He needn't have worried, all his shots went over the bar anyway!

★ ★ ★ ★

When Rangers trained in the Westfalenstadion on the Tuesday night about 500 people turned up to watch them, including a sizeable number of Rangers fans.

One Dortmund fan, however, attracted everyone's attention . . . because his hair and clothes were in the colours of Borussia — yellow and black!

★ ★ ★ ★

Chick Young of the Evening Times had a little extra luggage to take home with him after the Dortmund trip.

Chick won the Press 'sweep' along with Ronnie Scott of the Sunday Post . . . in a toss-up for the prize of a keg of beer Chick came, tops . . . thus ensuring a happy night for the Scots press corps!

Chick continued his winning streak during Saturday's game against Kilmarnock. He drew John MacDonald's name in the 'sweep' and "Solo"s' 11th minute goal won the sportswriter £3!

★ ★ ★ ★

Rangers had to do a little manouvering before eating their lunch on Wednesday.

The normal dining room in the hotel was taken over by the players from Borussia Dortmund! So Rangers had to move to another room.

However, a clash was avoided and the food stayed on the tables!

★ ★ ★ ★

The Borussia Dortmund fans were very noisy, unlike most German fans, but the influence of English football on television was obvious after a while.

They chanted in German quite often but during the first half began singing 'We are the Champions' — in English.

ARABIAN INVITE FOR LIGHT BLUES

AFTER their fantastic success in Dortmund last week, Ibrox boss John Greig revealed that the Club are in demand in Saudi Arabia.

The Light Blues have received an invitation to play a game against Ittihad, who are the current champions of Jeddah.

"Obviously, the invitation is probably a result from our very successful trip to the Middle East two years ago, but I am sure Ittihad will be even keener for us to go after the Borussia result," said manager Greig.

"However, there are one or two problems over the date. They have offered us October 20 or 27, but I would like to think that on the first date we would be playing a UEFA Cup second round tie and on the second date a League Cup semi-final match.

"If that is how things work out, then we obviously would have to fulfil these commitments before going to Jeddah."

Boss Greig, though, will enquire about the possibility of another date so as not to disappoint the Middle East officials.

● HAPPY THREESOME . . . Physio Bob Findlay, Bobby Russell, and John MacDonald on a visit to the town of Lugtendortmund.

A real change for Bob

THERE were three Rangers players making their European debuts for the Club in Dortmund . . . Dave MacKinnon, Craig Paterson and Robert Prytz.

Another debutante was on the playing field for less than a minute during the match . . . yet had a vital role.

The recently appointed Ibrox physiotherapist Bob Findlay was on his first trip with Rangers — and he loved every minute of it.

Strange

"Really the atmosphere in the ground during the game was something else. I honestly couldn't quite believe it was all happening," said Bob.

"The strangest moment was in the second half when Craig Paterson went down injured after a heavy challenge in the penalty box.

"it was right in front of the 'Dortmund end' and they were making so much noise that when I asked Craigy what was wrong, I couldn't hear a word he said in reply!"

Bad

But Bob, who used to be with Raith Rovers, found the whole trip a very enjoyable experience.

"Raith used to go to the Highlands and the north of England sometimes but it was never like this. There is a great atmosphere at the Club right now and I'm glad to be a part of it."

Luckily, Paterson's injury wasn't bad enough to force him off the field for long although it seemed bad at the time.

Refused

"It's just a twisted ankle and although Craig felt a bit sore after the game and had a stiff leg the next morning, it seems to be okay," explained Bob.

Craig, in fact, missed about three minutes of play — despite the fact he made a quick recovery.

The referee refused to allow Craig back on the field from behind the goal and made him walk to the tunnel before he could rejoin the play!

A SHOCK FOR YOUNG KENNY

KENNY Black turned out for Rangers Reserves a week ago on Saturday against Dundee United with no thought of going to Dortmund.

Yet young Kenny made it onto the plane that left Glasgow Airport last Tuesday morning!

"It's something I never expected," said Kenny.

"I knew once Ally got back in the team, he would be in line for a place in the UEFA Cup game and I couldn't see me going as well."

The night before the game Kenny thought he wouldn't make it onto the bench. Yet at 6.45 p.m. on the Wednesday night he found out he had.

Hard

"I wasn't told I was a sub until we got into the dressing room just before kick-off. The Boss named the teams at dinner time on the Wednesday but left the subs till late," Kenny said.

"It wasn't something I was thinking about then. I was just delighted to be on the trip to learn about what playing in Europe is all about and being sub was a bonus."

Although he didn't come on, Kenny enjoyed sampling European football.

● The draws for the next rounds of all three European competitions will be made in Zurich at noon on October 1.

"It has to be the biggest occasion I've seen so far," he said.

"When we walked out before the kick-off and the fans were chanting 'Rangers! Rangers!' it was a great feeling to just be there.

"The atmosphere on the bench was electric. I don't think I've been in a crowd as big as that where there was so much noise and excitement.

"Even Wembley with Scotland schoolboys didn't compare. It's still quite hard to believe."

Kenny's only other trip with the side was when they went to Southampton for the return game after Sandy Jardine's testimonial back in May.

"I've been away with the Rangers youth side in Croix and also with Scotland, but it's a bit different when you are with the first team in a European tie," he said.

● KENNY BLACK . . . Surprised to be on the trip.

IBROX BOSSES JOIN UP

JOHN Greig, Campbell Ogilvie and Tommy McLean joined the Army last week . . . but only for a day.

The Ibrox officials were all visiting the Dortmund division of the British Army on the Rhine last Tuesday afternoon as part of their off the field preparations for the game itself.

"About 2,000 troops from Germany were expected to make the journey to Dortmund," said Campbell Ogilvie, "so we knew it was important to make sure they understood the behaviour required.

"That's why we had talks with Bob Davies, who is the BAOR liaison officer and he was a great help to us in Germany. Also we visited the barracks with him and made a presentation to their team."

"There was a tremendous interest in the match, not just with the troops but in the town itself and to that extent I think the tradition of Rangers played its part." said Bob.

Those 2,000 troops joined in with the 3,000 Rangers fans who travelled to Germany and created one of the noisiest crowds the Dortmund public had ever seen.

TAR SHOW

, but not out . . . John heads the ball over the line as Derek takes a tumble.

ST ANOTHER . . . Craig Paterson's header is just over the bar.

A FIVE star spectacular of thrills, goals and entertainment is the only way to describe Saturday's Rangers' performance.

The Ibrox side celebrated their moral victory in Germany by taking the luckless Kilmarnock to the cleaners and it enabled them to claim their first Premier League victory.

It was Kilmarnock's first league defeat since March 27 and it took the Light Blues' goal tally to 59 against the Rugby Park team in the lat 20 league meetings.

YET RANGERS COULD EASILY HAVE NETTED MORE THAN FIVE ON SATURDAY.

John MacDonald should have secured his hat-trick with a low shot in the second half and two goals were chalked off for offside — that's how far ahead Rangers really were.

Rangers 5
Kilmarnock 0

Rout

The rout started after 16 minutes when John McDonald headed home from two yards after John McClelland had back headed a Robert Prytz corner across the goal mouth.

Six minutes later Bobby Russell prodded home his first of the season from 15 yards.

From that moment on, it was always a question of how many goals Rangers were going to score.

Derek Johnstone, who had had a goal disallowed in the 11th minute, finally got his name on the scoresheet in the 53rd minute when he finished off a fine move with an angular drive from 12 yards after Prytz had superbly dummied a Cooper pass.

John McClelland, once again turning in a top class display, blasted in number four in the 57th minute from 14 yards. A real spectacular goal.

And big John set up goal number five ten minutes later when he crossed to the far post and Johnstone managed to turn it back for MacDonald to score — again from close range.

Threatened

In the end, it was an easy win — but it was no more than Rangers deserved. They were superbly skilful, their build-up was incisive and their finishing was deadly. Few teams could have lived with them on Saturday.

They did what they had threatened to do in their first two league matches — score a barrowload of goals.

The fans enjoyed it — AND THEY'LL CERTAINLY BE BACK FOR MORE!

● HAPPY FACE . . . John shows his delight after the fifth goal.

THEY SAID IT . . .

JOHN GREIG (After Saturday's 5-0 victory): "It's been a good week for us, but there's no way we will get carried away. I'm really pleased for our fans. They have turned out well for us this season and I think they appreciate what we are trying to do."

IBROX MARKSMEN

ALTHOUGH Craig Paterson was the early leading scorer, John MacDonald is now the man at the top of the marksmen's chart. He has seven goals to his credit.

THE GAMBLE FERGIE WOULD LIKE TO TAKE

ABERDEEN manager Alex Ferguson, who will see his team play Rangers on Saturday at Pittodrie candidly admits he would like to take a gamble this season.

But the Dons boss must be wondering if it is one he will be allowed to make.

"I would like to see this club reach the last four of a European tournament or do even better," admits the Pittodrie manager.

"But if we did that I would have to wonder at what cost it would be achieved.

"Say, for example, we were in the running for the Scottish Cup and the Premier League and involved in Europe at the same time.

"It is possible, and I know this from bitter experience, for a defeat in Europe to affect our home games, so ruining our chances of picking up the title or Cup.

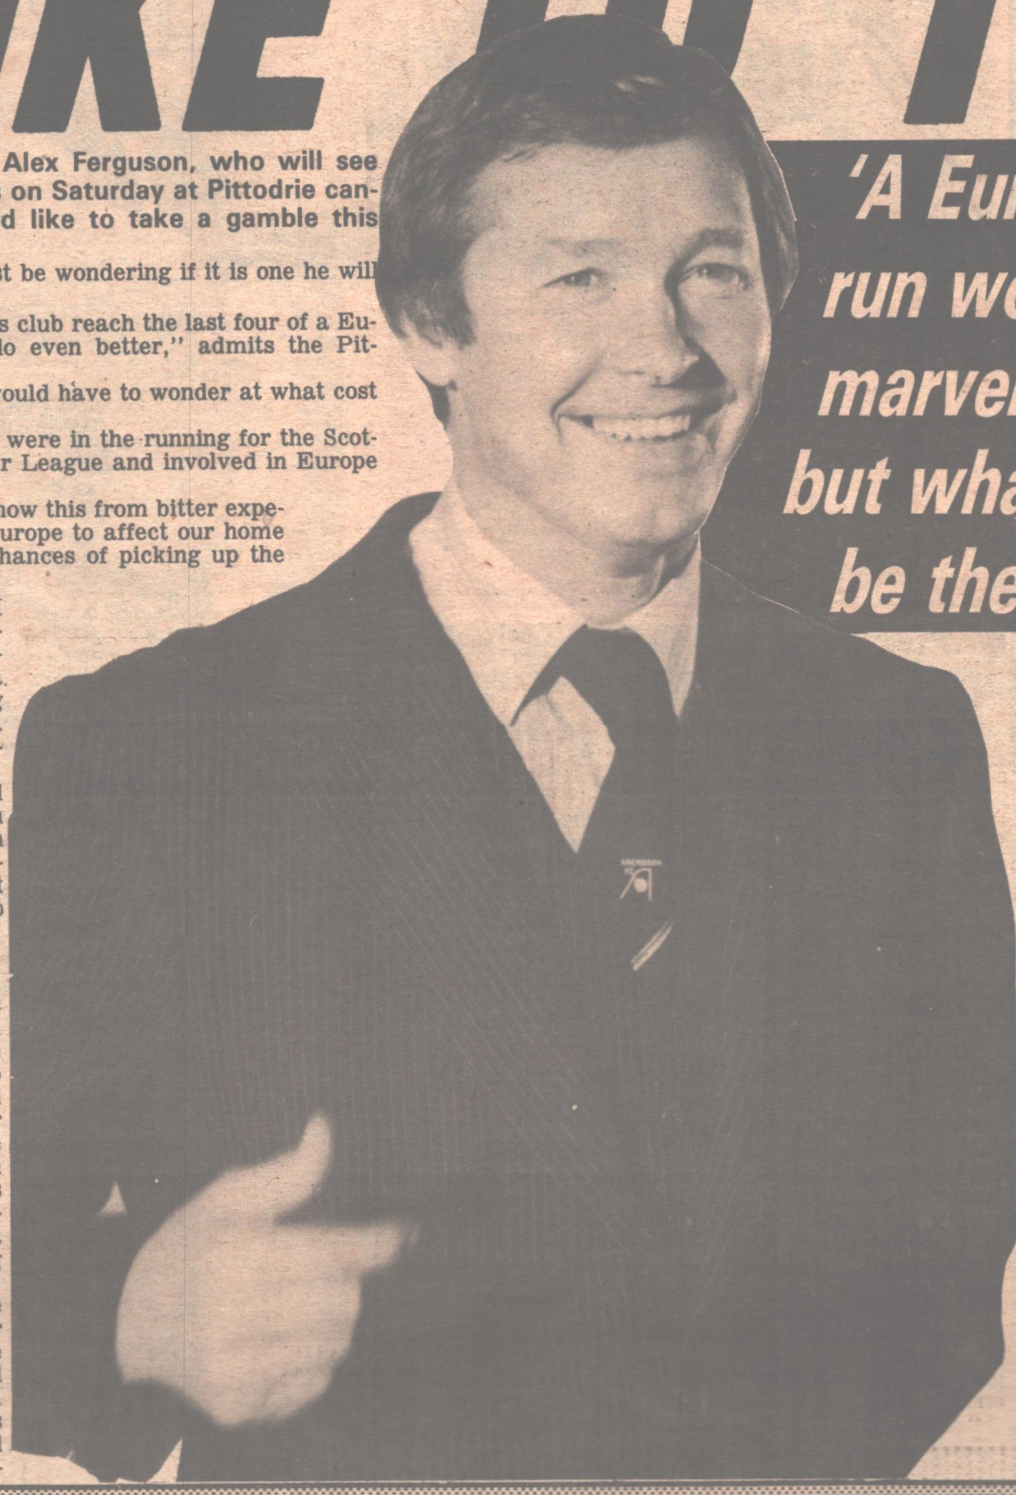
"That is a gamble I will take — WITH RESERVATIONS. But another factor could be a win in Europe boosting our home performance. It's something I'm prepared to find out."

Whether the Dons will manage that this season is open to speculation after last week's Cup-Winners' Cup tie against Albanian side, Dinamo Tirana.

Chances

'Fergie', as he was known to Ibrox fans in the days when he wore Rangers' colours, had to sit in the dug-out and watch his team squander a host of chances before eventually finishing with a 1-0 lead. The dangers of such a slender advantage for what will be a precarious second leg match are obvious.

It was all the more surprising a result after their scoring spree in the preliminary round against Swiss side, Sion. They blasted in 11 goals for only one in reply and looked set for easy qualification to the Second Round.



'A European run would be marvellous — but what would be the cost?'

ABERDEEN HAVE GAINED MORE THAN USEFUL EXPERIENCE IN THE LAST FEW SEASONS IN THE EUROPEAN ARENA UNDER FERGUSON'S COMMAND.

Fate

Four years ago they were unfortunate to go out in the Cup-Winners' Cup to Fortuna Dusseldorf, and suffered a similar fate against Eintract Frankfurt in the UEFA Cup the following season.

Then, in the European Cup in 1980, after defeating Austria Vienna, they came up against a Liverpool side in magnificent form, which later went on to win the tournament.

Last year, though, they started to reap the benefit. They brilliantly disposed of holders Ipswich in the opening round of the UEFA Cup and then smartly dismissed Rumanian side Arges Pitesti.

Two defensive lapses cost them dearly against Hamburg in the third round and although they claimed a 3-2 win at Pittodrie, they lost 3-1 in West Germany.

MANY PEOPLE FELT THE EUROPEAN EXIT AFFECTED THEIR LEAGUE PERFORMANCES AND, AS A RESULT, COST THEM THE LEAGUE TITLE LATER IN THE SEASON.

"We only had ourselves to blame. A series of 0-0 draws knocked the wind out of our sails a bit and the defeat by Hamburg in Europe didn't help but really we should never have been so far behind," said Alex.

Confidence

"The Hamburg result was a big blow to everyone's confidence at Pittodrie. We didn't believe would go out to them and even after the game at Pittodrie, we still felt that we had a really strong chance.

"As it was, we let the game slip and from then on it had a throwback effect on all the other games in our domestic programme."

Despite that, the Dons still had a good term last season.

They lifted the Scottish Cup by beating Rangers 4-1 after extra time —yet Fergie isn't prepared to sit back and say he is happy.

"We've a good team up here and the players like Gordon Strachan,

● ALEX FERGUSON . . . didn't win anything with Rangers.

● . . . but grabbed more than a few vital goals for Falkirk.

'We don't need to fear any side in Europe'

Willie Miller and Jim Leighton and Alex McLeish are obviously much improved from the experience, so I am looking to continue the success of last term.

"SUCCESS IS SOMETHING WHICH HAS TO BE WORKED FOR AND I WOULD NOW SAY MY PLAYERS ARE WILLING TO DO THAT WORK.

"They saw a few trophies slip away from them last season and, as a result, they know what they have to do to make sure it doesn't happen again."

Honours

Alex Ferguson was a big favourite in his time at Ibrox but he never actually won any major honours.

Even his days with Queen's Park, St. Johnstone, Dunfermline, Falkirk and Ayr United left him without a medal, although he came close once or twice.

As a manager, however, he has established himself as one of the top men in the country. He helped put some life back into East Stirling, revitalised St. Mirrer and put them on the road to being one of the top Premier League Clubs and has since made Aberdeen regular winners in the last few years.

He led them to the Premier Division Championship in 1980 and the Scottish Cup last season.

It has made him a wanted man. Last season he turned down the opportunity of a £50,000 salary and the chance to boss Wolves because he felt his players had still to realise their potential at Pittodrie.

"WE NEED FEAR NO-ONE IN SCOTLAND. AND I REALLY BELIEVE WE DO NOT NEED TO FEEL INFERIOR TO ANY SIDE IN EUROPE EITHER."

Dangerous

Meanwhile, this Saturday Alex and the Dons boys came face to face with the new look Rangers side for the first time this season.

The game, squeezed in between the first and second legs of European games, will be a crunch one for both sides.

"It will be one of the first big domestic games the new Rangers players will play in," he continues.

"I've had Rangers watched already this season and I am sure they will be every bit as hard to beat as they always were.

"I know a lot of people will look to our wins over them last year but I believe that Rangers were a very good side last year.

Tradition

"However, I don't think Rangers will necessarily be a more dangerous side this year as a result of their big buys.

"I HAVE NO DOUBT THEY ARE GOOD PLAYERS BUT PLAYING RANGERS IS ABOUT MORE THAN JUST PLAYERS. It's all about the tradition of a great club and, the big crowd.

"It's always a big occasion and in that respect will be no different from last year."

Killie out to break nineteen year 'duck' . . .

THE good old Cup days will come back to Rugby Park this evening when Kilmarnock take the field for their League Cup quarter-final tie against Rangers.

And the Ayrshire club will be aiming to reach their first Cup semi-final in nine years — knowing that it is considerably longer since they beat the Ibrox men in a League Cup tie.

Defeat

It was back in 1962 that Killie, then under the managerial leadership of Willie Waddell, last defeated the Light Blues in this competition. They triumphed 3-2 in an exciting semi-final at Hampden.

Since then, however, the clubs have met on five occasion, with Rangers winning three times and the others finishing in draws.

Indeed, that 1962 defeat by Kilmarnock was only the second the Ayrshire outfit had ever inflicted on Rangers in the competition, the other also being in the semi-final. That was in 1952 when they triumphed by a solitary goal, again at Hampden.

● JOHN GREIG

Feat

It is nine years, however, since the newly promoted Kilmarnock last played in the last four of the competition and, the bookies are against the Killie men repeating that feat this year.

"Statistics are nice when they are in your favour," says Ibrox boss John Greig, "but frankly they are not much use to you when you take the field for another game.

"There's no way my players will be thinking about a second leg, semi-final or any other game for that matter tonight. There will be only one result we'll be caring about — the first leg against Kilmarnock.

"We'll take everything else as it comes."

The Ibrox boss has already had Kilmarnock watched twice this season and, of course he had another chance to cast his eye over them on Saturday when the clubs met in the league.

Result

But that result — and other encounters in the League Cup earlier — will have no bearing on tonight's scoreline. They will simply be concentrating on getting a good result for the return match at Ibrox on October 6.

Who's the mystery Ranger?

● THIS week the 'News' has decided to see how well our Young Rangers Club members know the playing staff at Ibrox.

The special effect 'News' photograph on the right is of a well-known Light Blues' star. Do you know who it is?

If you don't recognise him, his identity is revealed on the opposite page.

ANOTHER BIG MONEY SAVER!

HAVING already given our Young Rangers Club members big discounts on some of the more costly items in the Rangers Shop, this week we are giving our kids the chance to save money on some of the less expensive goods.

We're giving members the chance to save 45 pence on the Rangers sweatbands — which means you can buy them for just 50 pence!

So if you want to get your sweatbands, all you have to do is go along to the shop, show them your membership card and hand over your money. It's as simple as that.

And don't forget, we'll have more bargain buys in the weeks and months to gome.

● Supporters are also reminded that there is a five per cent. discount on all mail order items which are sent in on the "News" coupon in the advert below.

Young Rangers Club

BE THE NUMBER ONE!

MEMBERS of the Young Rangers Club were among the first people to get the chance win the new Rangers Stip when we offered both the home and away strips in a recent contest.

Having put the new tracksuit up for grabs, we are now completing the set by offering all our Y.R.C. members the opportunity to win the Light Blues' new goalkeepers outfit.

Identities

So if you are a budding Jim Stewart, have a go at this week's competition.

All we want you to do is unscramble the words on the right to form six names of famous goalkeepers.

When you have worked out the identities of the goalkeepers write them down on a postcard in the correct order from A to F and send it to "Goalies", Rangers News, 19 North Claremont Street, Glasgow, G3 7NR.

Entries

Don't forget to include your full name, address, Young Rangers Club membership number and the size of strip you would require should you win.

The closing date for entries to this contest is Tuesday, September 28.

The Editors' decision is final in all matters.

INTERNATIONAL TEASERS

1. Only six players with three letter surnames have been capped for Scotland since the war. Can you name them?

2. Who scored Scotland's first ever goal in the World Cup Finals?

3. How many players in the current Rangers squad have gained full international recognition?

4. Only two players have played for Scotland in the last three World Cup finals campaigns. Can you name them?

5. In which year did Scotland first play against foreign opposition and what was the score?

● ANSWERS ON THE RIGHT

RECRUIT A RECRUIT

WE want all our Young Rangers Club members to join a friend in our super club.

If you manage to get FIVE people to join, you will receive a mystery bonus prize.

When you have five new recruits, collect their names and addresses and get them to fill in the application form. Only one name per form.

Put the applications in an envelope, along with their 60p enrolment fees, enclosing your own name, address and YRC membership number and send it off to "New Recruits", Rangers News, 19 North Claremont Street, Glasgow, G3 7NR.

Please make sure that your friends WANT to join the club.

A PICTURE BONUS FOR OUR KIDS . . .

YOUNG Rangers Club members can now have a photograph of themselves alongside their birthday on the YRC page.

If you have a birthday in the near future and would like to see your photo in the "News" then all you have to do is drop us a line along with a photograph, preferably black and white, to "Birthday Greetings (photo)", Rangers News, 19 North Claremont Street, Glasgow G3 7NR.

Please write in pen, your name, address and date of birth on the back of the picture as well as your Young Rangers Club membership number.

Unfortunately, we cannot return any photographs, so don't send any of your mum's favourites!

Hazel's a 'clean' winner

IN issue 561 the prize offered in our Young Rangers Club competition was a 'Dusty Bin' in Rangers colours.

You were asked to name the scorer of Rangers second goal in the 1978 Scottish Cup semi-final against Dundee United, and also the score in the final.

Hazel Deans from Frazerbugh in Aberdeensire answered both parts correctly, saying the scorer was John Greig and the final result was Rangers 2, Aberdeen 1. Her card was the first pulled from the "News" drum.

The 'Dusty Bin' will be sent out this week.

PEN-PALS

WANTED: Pen-Pals anywhere in Northern Ireland, age 16-20. Males or females, willing to make exchange visits. Must be Rangers fans. My interests are playing football and going to games. I also enjoy listening to most kinds of music. Contact Colin Anderson and Rocky, 11 Mearsdale Park, Moffat, Dumfriesshire.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO OUR MEMBERS

● The following Young Rangers Club members will all celebrate a birthday in the coming week.

● IF you would like to see your name mentioned in this column, then all you have to do is drop us a line and tell us about it.

Write your name, address, date of birth AND Young Rangers Club membership number down on a piece of paper and send it to "Birthday Greetings", Rangers News, 19 North Claremont Street, Glasgow, G3 7NR.

Try and send in your greeting request two weeks before your birthday.

Hearts or Saints for Rangers

RANGERS will meet Hearts or St. Mirren in the League Cup Semi-finals — providing they beat Kilmarnock in the quarter-finals.

The draw for the 'semis' was made at a meeting of the League Management Committee in Glasgow last Thursday and the Light Blues will play the first match at home on Wednesday, October 27.

The return ties would be on November 10, depending on Rangers' European commitments.

The other semi-final will be between Celtic or Partick Thistle v Aberdeen or Dundee United.

The final will be played at Hampden on either November 27 or December 4 — again depending on 'Scottish clubs' European Involvment.

NEXT season could start a week later — with the league championship heralding the opening day of the term. And the present League Cup format could be scrapped.

That's the proposals put forward at last week's meeting of the Scottish League Management Committee and the proposals will be put to the clubs shortly. It's likely they will accept.

In addition, there could be a sponsorship deal in the pipeline for the League Cup.

TENNENT'S T LAGER

UNITED WE STAND!

FOR some years now, the taxman has been the REAL winner in the Rangers pools every week. But a joint pools venture which will be launched by Rangers and Manchester United in January or February of next year will change all that!

By 'News' Reporter

At the moment the prize money in the current Rangers Pool One is just over £30,000. The tax man is presently taking over £36,000.

But under the new set-up, no betting duty will be payable — and that means more money for winners and for the agents who sell the new tickets.

Advantages

"That's one of the advantages of the new set-up," says Rangers Pools Managing Director Hugh Adam," but there are others.

"Although we are the biggest club pool in Britain, we have never really broken through in England.

"We have several hundred agents, but the drawing power of Manchester United would enable us to change that because it would mean we could sell tickets on a national level."

The joint venture would also enable Manchester United to cash in on Rangers' name north of the border.

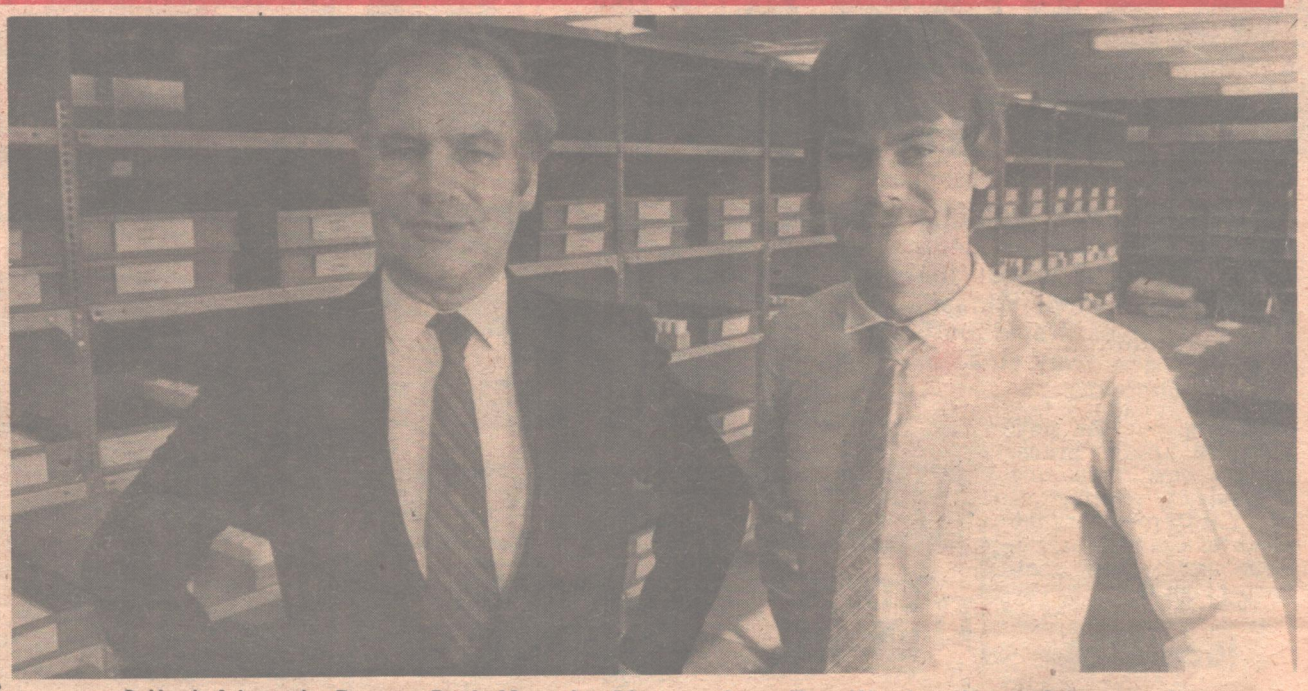
"It would be good for both of us. I would hope to build the new pool up to the level of the current Rangers pools within a couple of years and then get it to go on growing and growing."

Expenses

The new pools tickets will be similar in one way to the current Ibrox pools in that tickets will cost 25p each and clients will have a weekly series of numbers. However, they will also be able to SELECT numbers on an entry form, giving them a choice of fixed teams or selected teams.

The two clubs will have offices in Glasgow and Manchester, with each having a manager to look after things. Hugh Adam will be in overall charge.

The money left after prizes, agents' commission and expenses have been paid will be split 50-50 between the clubs, with the Ibrox cash going into the Development Fund.



● Hugh Adam, the Rangers Pools Managing Director, shows Tony Woodward around the new offices that the Rangeman Pools will work from. Tony will be in charge of the Manchester side of the Pools.

COLTS NET FIVE, TOO!

WHILE the first eleven were hitting five past Kilmarnock, the Ibrox Colts were doing likewise at Rugby Park.

They were two down after just 20 minutes, but they fought back to thrash the young Killie side with some top class football.

"We are always committed to attack and it was always on that some side would catch us out because of that," said coach Joe Mason.

"But it's to the boys' credit they came storming back and won the game well."

After losing two goals from just three attacks, Rangers buckled down to the task well and in the 23rd minute Kenny Lyall headed number one from a Muir cross.

Billy Davies then crashed a 25-yard shot past the keeper for a glorious equaliser just on the half-hour mark.

It was 2-2 at half time, but only two minutes after the interval Rangers took the lead for the first time when Colin McAdam shooting low and hard past the goalkeeper.

● JOE MASON

RANGERS: Bruce, McIntyre, Black, McAdam, McPherson, Lyall, Muir, Miller, Kennedy, Davies, Robertson. Subs: Willock (for Muir), Fleck (not used).

Dougie Robertson scored from 20 yards.

Kenny Lyall scored his second after 70 minutes with a lovely piece of skill. He took the ball into the area and chipped over the full-back's head before volleying it home from ten yards.

Colin McAdam hit number five near the end after the move was built up from the halfway line, resulting in

● The draw for the semi-finals of the Reserve League Cup was made last week and Rangers will meet their old rivals, Celtic.

In the other "semi", Hibs will play Dundee United. Games will be played both home and away.

● The reserves were in action again on Monday evening when they met Aberdeen at Pittodrie in the first leg of last season's championship decider. The return match will be played this Saturday at Ibrox. The scheduled league game between the two clubs for Saturday has been postponed.

Cash at Rugby Park . . .

RANGERS League Cup tie against Kilmarnock at Rugby Park this evening is NOT all-ticket.

It will be 'first come-first served' at the turnstiles with the following prices applying:

CENTRE STAND £2.50; WING STAND £2; TERRACING £1.50.

KEEP UP TO DATE

MONDAY

Partick Thistle manager Peter Cormack insists he will be staying with the club despite protests from fans at the club's recent dismal form.

TUESDAY

This season's Scotland-England match WILL be the climax to the British International series after all — but it will still be played in midweek, on Wednesdsay, June 1. The English FA offer the SFA an allocation of 10,000 tickets. The SFA want at least 30,000.

Willie Johnston continues his remarkable career with a move to Hearts from Canadian side Vancouver Whitecaps last week. Johnston, 35, will team up again with ex-Rangers colleagues Alex MacDonald and Sandy Jardine. No fee was involved.

THURSDAY

Partick Thistle defender Andy Dunlop has a suspected broken ankle.
