WE WANT AN ENQUIRY

THE S.F.A. were quick to act when three players were sent off a few weeks ago in a Rangers-Hearts match. They ordered an enquiry without consulting either club. That's why Rangers want the Park Gardens men to move just as quickly and order a full-scale enquiry into the events at Ibrox on Saturday!

Image

As chairman John Paton told the "News": "We will be asking for a proper enquiry into what caused the trouble during our game with Aberdeen. And that doesn't mean merely asking the referee and linesmen for their views."

An angry Mr Paton added: "The events at Ibrox on Saturday damaged the image of my club and Scottish football and in the interests of all concerned the S.F.A. may have to appoint independent investigators who would gather the evidence of people who were on the field and off it."

There are certainly questions which have to be answered after the Aberdeen game and an independent enquiry would seem to be the only way to reach the truth.

Trouble

● Why, for instance, should there be crowd incidents at this game when Ibrox has been virtually trouble free since the new grandstands were built?

● Why was Rangers' full-back Hugh Burns sent off after one foul when other players committed several fouls and remained on the field?

● Why did the referee wish to take the players off the field when the police had disturbances in the enclosure well in hand?

Thirty-eight thousand people who paid to see this important game had reason to feel cheated when Ranges were reduced to nine men and the contest was effectively ended and these same supporters must be wondering why it is left to the Rangers News to pose such questions.

The national papers, normally such avid seekers of truth, have shown no desire to ask such questions nor try to explain why thousands of decent supporters were clearly incensed by what they saw.

Our man in Spain

★ Rangers are in Spain for their UEFA Cup match against Athletico Osasuna and a 'News' reporter is with the team.

So for all those fans who followed Rangers' pleas and didn't 'Follow Follow' next week's 'News' is a must. We'll have all the behind the scenes stories the other papers can't bring you. So make sure you get next week's 'News'.

Italian job for Scott

★ Rangers' striker Scott Nisbet has been included in the Scottish under-18 squad to play in a four-nation tournament in Italy next month.

The full squad is: Fridge (Chelsea), McKeown (Motherwell), Welsh (Dundee Utd.), Whyte (Celtic), Redpath (Hearts), McRobb (Aberdeen), Robertson (Aberdeen), G. McLeod (Dundee Utd.), Walsh (Everton), Collins (Hibs), Kirkwood (East Fife), J. McLeod (Dundee Utd.), Kelly (Partick Thistle), Nisbet (Rangers), Mills (Celtic) and Wright (Aberdeen).

LUCKY 13 FOR SYDNEY

OUR Marathon Man has done it at last! Yes, in last weekend's Glasgow Marathon, SYDNEY SMITH smashed the magical three-hour barrier over the 26-mile plus distance.

Sydney, from Elm Row in Cambuslang, has been sponsored by the 'News' for just over a year and since we bought him running kit with the words 'Rangers News' on it, he has been trying to complete a marathon in under three hours.

Glasgow, Belfast and Greenock are just three of the marathons Sydney has taken part in but, up until last week, his best time was around five minutes outside his three-hour target.

It was Sydney's 13th marathon and it proved to be lucky as he finished in 875th position in a field of around 11,000 in an excellent time of 2 hours, 59 minutes and 55 seconds.

Said Sydney: "I only made it by five seconds but as it took around 40 seconds to get over the start line, I'm very pleased with that!

● SYDNEY SMITH . . . thanked fans.

"I knew I was in with a chance at Pollok Park. I was at 2 hours 13 minutes then after 20 miles. Last year I lost time after that but this time I felt very strong.

"I'd like to thank all the Rangers fans who cheered me on seeing my Rangers News vest. There seemed to be more of them than ever this year and it certainly provided me with a lot of encouragement."

ALLY McCOIST was in Grangemouth on Saturday to receive his 'Player of the Year' award from the local Rangers Supporters Club. Also at the annual dance were 'Young Player of the Year' Ian Durrant, plus DEREK FERGUSON, JOCK WALLACE, ALEX TOTTEN AND BOB FINDLAY.

Rangers fan ANDREW HANNAH is looking for a Rangers Supporters Club in his area with which he could travel to matches. He lives in Middlesbrough so any clubs in the North-East interested in helping him out can contact him at 38 Maple Street, Middlesbrough, Cleveland T51 3DS or 'phone him on 0642 221942.

DAVIE COOPER was a late call-off from last week's League Cup semi-final match against Hibs at Easter Road. The winger was suffering from flu.

David's in the prizes

TEN POUNDS are on their way to David Hunter, 79 Hawthornhill Road, Castlehill, Dumbarton. He has won our recent competition where we offered that amount as a prize.

David correctly told us John Bourke was wearing Kilmarnock colours in the picture, and that his present club is Dumbarton.

Two tickets for Saturday's game against Aberdeen were won by David Clacher, 55 Cleuch Gardens, Clarkston, Glasgow.

He was spot on with his identification of the mystery player, who was Ian Angus of Aberdeen.

★ Former Rangers' players, Tommy McLean and Tom Forsyth, are used to doing a bit of talent spotting in their new roles as manager and assistant manager of Motherwell. But last week they had their eye on a different kind of talent, in the shape of Dawn Marie McGuigan. They were all present at the opening of a new pub, 'Kandles' in Young Street, Wishaw and also in attendance was former boxing champion Walter McGowan.

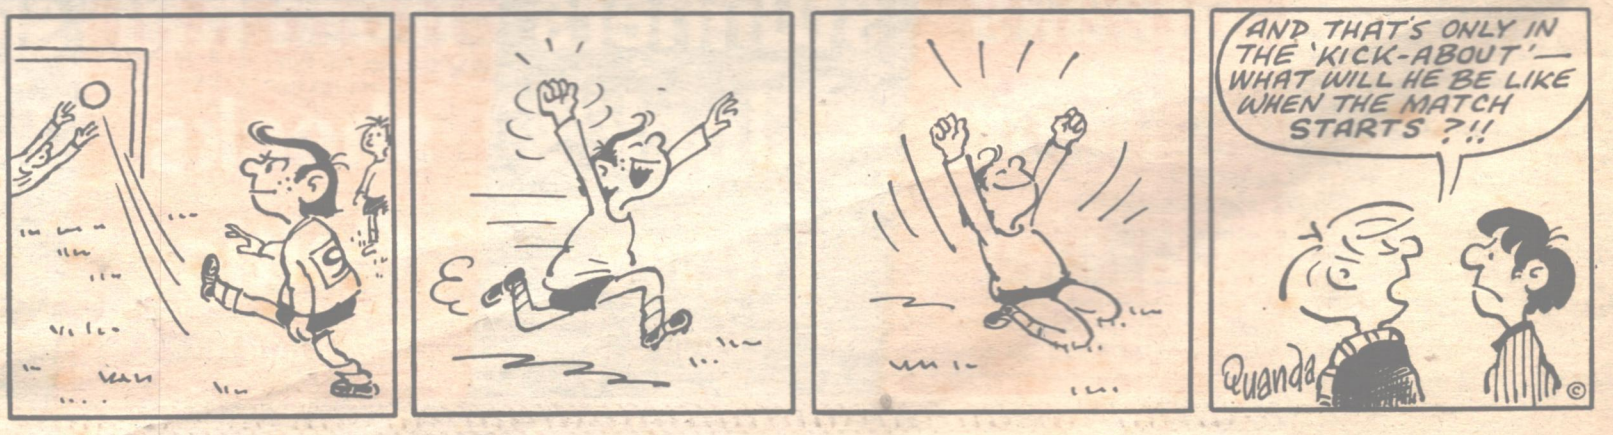
TICH BY QUANDA



★ ROLL OUT THE BARREL . . . Rangers boss Jock Wallace was last week presented with £250 and a replica firkin of ale as Scottish Brewers Personality Manager of the Month for August.

JOCK

THERE were no arguments; no unpleasantness. I called Iain Ferguson and Cammy Fraser into my office last weekend and explained I did not see any first team future for them at Ibrox and so it would probably be better for everyone if I put them on the transfer list.

They both agreed because they didn't relish playing in the reserves.

Wrong

Why did they have to go? Simply because they could not fit into our style of play. It was not that they did not try — they both worked as hard as anyone at training.

It was not an easy decision for me because I signed both players. I was sure they would be an asset to the team but I was wrong. No doubt sometime I may be wrong again because signing new players is always a gamble for a manager.

You see how well they play for another side and you think they can do it for you but they have to adapt. Some players can do that in a matter of days. Others need weeks or even months. Some never find the form they showed before.

This is perhaps more likely to happen at Ibrox than anywhere else because there are extra pressures on Rangers players. Success is always expected from them. Our supporters, used to watching so many good players over the years, are maybe more impatient with those who do not find their form.

In some ways, of course, they are quite right. No player is more important than the team. The team must always come first and if that means there are "casualities" among the players, that is how it has to be.

Personally, I think Ferguson and Fraser are still good players and I hope they can prove this again with another club.

Problem

Rangers? After defeats by Dundee and Hibs we are under fire again, but I feel no panic. Dundee got us on a day when nobody played well except Nicky Walker. I am in no doubt the sodden pitch against Ossasuna took more out of the players than we realised . . . and this was especially true of full-backs Stuart Munro and Hugh Burns.

They made a lot of long runs over a pitch which clung to the ball and their boots and when they found themselves playing in the same conditions a few days later against Dundee, they simply did not have enough strength left.

In fact, I think they were only fully recovered towards the end of last week.

Some of the other players were also tired, but that was not the whole problem. Against Dundee and Hibs we also lacked character.

Last time I was manager at Ibrox people used to make jokes about what I called character but they hardly ever asked exactly what I meant.

Well, when I am talking about "Character", I mean the unselfishness of a player who is always ready to run a little further and push himself a little harder to help a pal.

I want a Rangers team who are all pals and all looking to help each other out in every game . . . for 90 minutes.

NO HARD FEELINGS

NO HARD FEELINGS — and one very special memory. That is what Iain Ferguson will take with him when he leaves Ibrox.

The £200,000 striker was placed on the transfer-list last week along with midfielder Cammy Fraser.

Both players came to Ibrox from Dundee at the start of last season but neither has established themselves as a regular in the Light Blues first team.

For Fergie, leaving the club is the only answer to the frustration he has felt in recent months and he makes it clear there is absolutely no animosity between himself and manager Jock Wallace.

Magic

He told the 'News': "I signed for Rangers on good terms with the manager and I'll leave on good terms. It just hasn't worked out for me at Ibrox for one reason or another and now I want to try my luck in England.

"I feel my game will be well suited for the type of game they play down there.

"Whatever has happened at Ibrox, I'll always have the magic memory of having scored the winning goal in that League Cup Final againt Dundee United — I'll treasure that forever.

"I WOULD NEVER PLAY FOR ANOTHER SCOTTISH CLUB — IT WOULD JUST BE DOWNHILL AFTER RANGERS.

"And most of all I would like to thank the Rangers fans for their support in my year or so with the club. Not once did they give me any stick and I'll always appreciate that."

Wars

For Cammy Fraser, of course, the relationship with the support was not so harmonious after his now infamous V-sign to the Govan Stand. But he too will leave Ibrox with no regrets and no-one could question his effort in a Light Blue jersey.

● FOOTNOTE (literally): Iain Ferguson was in the wars last week. He damaged ligaments in his left foot in an accidental clash with reserve coach John Hagart in training!

● FLASHBACK . . . to happier times for Iain Ferguson and Cammy Fraser as the pair celebrate Rangers 1-0 League Cup Final triumph over Dundee United last season.

Babes on top form

A 67TH minute goal from young Scott Nisbet — his first of the season — gave Rangers reserves a deserved victory over Aberdeen at Pittodrie on Saturday which takes them to the top of the Premier Reserve League.

Aberdeen . . . 1
Rangers 2

The Light Blues controlled 90 per cent of the match and were well worth their two points with a fine display which delighted coach John Hagart.

Stunned

He said: "The team played really well and it would have been a travesty if they had taken anything other than two points. We had no failures in the side at all, but Peter McCloy, Ally Dawson, Derek, Johnstone, Scott Nisbet and Cammy Fraser did particularly well."

Rangers attacked from the kick-off but were stunned when Aberdeen took the lead in the 12th minute, Paul Wright giving Peter McCloy no chance with a fine header.

The Light Blues went in behind to that goal at the interval but they were playing well and in the 57th minute they grabbed the equaliser.

John MacDonald was the man on target with a quite brilliant goal. The wee striker collected a pass on the edge of the penalty area, beat two Aberdeen defenders then fired a low show past Bryan Gunn into the net.

Pressure

Ten minutes later, Rangers pressure paid off when they got the winner. Cammy Fraser played the ball to Scott Nisbet who turned and hooked a great shot over the keeper from 20 yards.

Scott Nisbet won John Hagart's vote as 'Young Man of the Match' and Cammy Fraser was booked.

RANGERS: McCloy, MacFarlane, Miller, Dawson, Beattie, Davies, Nisbet, Fraser, E. Ferguson, Johnstone, MacDonald. Subs: Yule and A. McPherson (not used).

Davie's secret

★ Davie Cooper and Alan Rough met in secret recently at deserted Hampden Park to help out league sponsors Fine Fare with a special competition being run in conjunction with Brooke-Bond Oxo.

The Rangers winger took ten penalties against Hibs keeper and Scotland team-mate Alan Rough and shoppers in Fine Fare stores will be asked in the next month to guess how many David netted. And, as you can see, neither player is letting anyone in on the secret.

It's Cup agony for Rangers

RANGERS, the champagne specialists of the League Cup, went decidedly flat at Easter Road last Wednesday night.

The Light Blues' grip on the trophy they have won for the past two seasons was loosened considerably by those nocturnal creatures called Hibs and it's now going to take a supreme effort at Ibrox in the second leg for Jock Wallace's men to stay on course for a hat-trick of Hampden triumphs.

Just as there had been no excuses in defeat against Dundee four days earlier, there could be none for Rangers last week.

After a dull first half in which there were only two notable attempts at goal — Nicky Walker saving a Joe McBride shot and Ted McMinn firing the ball into the side-netting — Hibs took control and deserved their victory.

Superb

Rangers lacked the spark of inspiration in midfield which had seen them win so convincingly at Easter Road in the Premier League back in August.

Hibs had to survive a penalty-kick awarded to Rangers after only 32 seconds of the second half. If that he gone in, it might all have been so different.

Ian Durrant had been fouled by Kevin McKee as he raced into the penalty-area. Ally McCoist stepped up and placed his spot-kick well enough to the bottom left-hand corner of the net but Alan Rough got down to superbly turn the ball round the post for a corner.

That incident seemed to disconcert Rangers and inspire Hibs. Nicky Walker made a good save from a Steve Cowan 18-yard shot then Hugh Burns headed a Gordon Chisholm shot off the line.

The Light Blues then missed a chance when Ally McCoist hit the side-net after being sent clear by Dougie Bell and the price was paid in the 68th minute when Hibs took the lead.

Hibernian . . . 2
Rangers 0

Hugh Burns fouled Mickey Weir on the left, Joe McBride flighted in the free-kick to the far post and Gordon Chisholm rose to give Nicky Walker no chance with a powerful header.

Appeals

Eight minutes later, an almost identical goal gave Hibs the 2-0 lead that makes it so hard for Rangers. Iain Munro crossed from the left and this time Gordon Durie powered a header past the once more blameless Nicky Walker from six yards.

Although Hibs certainly deserved their victory, Rangers were denied what seemed a certain penalty-kick in the 78th minute when Ally McCoist was chopped down inside the area by Gordon Rae. But referee Duncan waved away their appeals.

However, the Light Blues can't dwell on that. The facts are that they are two goals down with 90 minutes of the semi-final left.

They suffered at Easter Road last week — next week they must make Hibs pay if they are to retain their grip on the trophy they have so proudly held for the last two seasons.

referee George Smith.

The youngster was visibly shattered and bemused by the dismissal and many people inside Ibrox shared his astonishment. It was certainly a very harsh decision which Hugh understandably found difficult to accept.

He received his marching orders for a foul on John Hewitt but it couldn't have been too bad as his "victim" sprang to his feet to take the resultant free-kick from which Alex McLeish headed Aberdeen into the lead.

Eric Black was then booked for a foul on Davie McPherson who was subsequently struck by a missile thrown from the crowd.

And ten minutes from half-time, Rangers were reduced to NINE men when Craig Paterson was sent off.

The Ibrox skipper body-checked Neale Cooper after the Aberdeen player had blatantly fouled Bobby Russell and he could count himself lucky not to be taking an early bath along with Craig.

Aberdeen scored again in the 38th minute when Billy Stark shot home after a Frank McDougall header had struck the crossbar.

THE SECOND HALF SAW DEPLETED RANGERS BATTLE ON COURAGEOUSLY AND IT WAS A MINOR MIRACLE THAT THEY LOST ONLY ONE MORE GOAL, JOHN HEWITT LOBBING THE BALL INTO THE NET FROM AROUND 25 YARDS IN THE 80TH MINUTE.

Latest 'Player of the Year' news

YOUNG Ian Durrant shone through the turmoil of last week to leap up the 'Player of the Year' table into second place.

The classy midfielder won the 'Man of the Match' nominations from manager Jock Wallace for his displays against Hibs at Easter Road and then again against Aberdeen at Ibrox.

Ian picked up a booking against Hibs, so he has seven points, still six behind runaway leader Hugh Burns.

Scott Nisbet picked up his first three points of the season from reserve coach John Hagart, who voted the striker 'Young Man of the Match' in the 2—1 win over Aberdeen at Pittodrie.

FINAL FLASHBACK . . . King Kai's goal stuns mighty Celts

THE GREAT DANE!

 PART 28 . . . Another report in our Final Flashback series, where we bring you reports and background to EVERY Scottish Cup Final Rangers have played in. This week we reach 1966 and Rangers, as underdogs, lift the trophy for the 19th time.*

● KAI'S CRACKER . . . Celtic goalkeeper Ronnie Simpson's diving leap isn't good enough to stop this 20 yard thunderbolt by Kai Johansen from winning Rangers their 19th Scottish Cup.

SEASON 1965-66 provided Rangers with an unusual experience — they went into a Scottish Cup Final NOT favourites to win the trophy.

They were up against Celtic, who had won the tournament the previous season by beating Dunfermline 3-2. It had been the first trophy won by the Parkhead men under new boss Jock Stein, who was clearly building a formidable side.

As the final arrived on Saturday, April 23, the 'Old Firm' were locked together at the top of the First Division on 51 points but Celtic had three matches left to play as opposed to Rangers' two remaining games.

The league meetings between the teams had seen Rangers win 2-1 at Ibrox, but Celtic recorded a crushing 5-1 success at Parkhead. The bookies and the newspaper 'experts' made Jock Stein's men favourites to win the cup.

Top

Rangers' route to the final saw them dispose of Airdrie (5-1), Ross County (2-0), St Johnstone (1-0) and then Aberdeen 2-1 in the semi-final after a goal-less draw.

A crowd of 126,559 turned up for the match and, despite the predictions, they all knew 'Old Firm' matches could go either way at any time.

Defences were on top right from the start with John Greig and Ronnie McKinnon outstanding for Rangers and Billy McNeill total commanding for Celtic.

The first real chance of the match was created in the 14th minute out of nothing by Willie Johnston. He wriggled his way past three Celtic defenders but mistimed his shot and the ball ran harmlessly out of play.

John Hughes was Celtic's most dangerous forward but he only managed to break clear of Greig and McKinnon once and his shot from the edge of the box was blocked by Kai Johansen.

Celtic started well in the second half and after only two minutes almost took the lead. Charlie Gallagher sent over a corner-kick from the left and Billy McNeill rose to send a powerful header against the crossbar.

That was a let off for Rangers but they didn't lost their composure and the only other chance of the match fell to them in the 55th minute when John Greig played a neat one-two with Willie Johnston but saw his eight yard shot brilliantly saved by Ronnie Simpson.

So the match ended goal-less and now no-one was quite so sure Celtic would lift the trophy in the replay.

The line-ups were:

RANGERS: Ritchie, Johansen, Provan, Greig, McKinnon, Millar, Wilson, Watson, Forrest, Johnston, Henderson.

CELTIC: Simpson, Young, Gemmell, Murdoch, McNeill, Clark, Johnstone, McBride, Chalmers, Gallagher, Hughes.

The bookies, though, made Celtic evens favourites for the replay, with Rangers' odds slashed to 7-4.

A crowd of 96,862 turned up at Hampden on Wednesday, April 27 for the replay and they saw a magical goal from Kai Johansen break the deadlock and take the Scottish Cup back to Ibrox.

Celtic looked the sharper side in the opening minutes, with Bertie Auld prompting attacks from all over the field. Jimmy Johnstone was also a threat and Davie Provan was booked for a foul on the Celtic winger in the 20th minute.

Without creating any clear-cut chances, the Parkhead men were on top and they must have been the more confident side as the players trooped into the dressing room after a goal-less first half.

Wild

It was much the same story in the opening quarter-hour of the second half and Celtic missed three good chances, with McNeil heading wide, Ritchie saving from McBride and Auld shooting wide.

Then, in the 70th minute, came a magnificent goal worthy of winning any cup final — and this one sent the Rangers fans wild with joy

Willie Johnston swung over a low cross from the right and the ball broke loose as Billy McNeill and George McLean challenged for it. Willie Henderson tried a shot which seemed netbound but Bobby Murdoch desperately cleared it off the line.

Mobbed

The ball seemed to be heading harmlessly out of play on the right — but in came full-back Kai Johansen to smash an astonishing shot past the bewildered Simpson into the net from around 20 yards.

The Dane was mobbed by his team-mates and when the final whistle blew on Rangers 1-0 triumph, he was carried from the field on their shoulders.

RANGERS: Ritchie, Johansen, Provan, Greig, McKinnon, Millar, Henderson, Watson, McLean, Johnston, Wilson.

CELTIC: Simpson, Craig, Gemmell, Murdoch, McNeill, Clark, Johnstone, McBride, Chalmers, Auld, Hughes.

Cousin strikes to sink Light Blues

October 2-8, 1960

RANGERS crashed to defeat on October 8 at Ibrox as Dundee scored a 1-0 shock victory.

Alan Cousin silenced the 35,000 Rangers fans with a close-in shot after goalkeeper Billy Ritchie had made a fantastic save from the forward. He could only palm the ball out, however, and Cousin made no mistake with the rebound.

RANGERS: Ritchie, Shearer, Caldow, Davis, Paterson, Baxter, Scott, McMillan, Millar, Brand, Wilson.

DUNDEE: Liney, Reid, Cox, Seith, Ure, Henderson, Penman, McGeachie, Cousin, Gilzean. Robertson.

Other scores that day were:

Motherwell	2	R. Rovers	1
Aberdeen	5	T. Lanark	3
Celtic	4	St Mirren	2
Dundee U.	1	Airdrie	2
Dunfermline	2	Ayr Utd.	2
Hearts	0	P. Thistle	1
Kilmarnock	1	Clyde	0
St Johnstone	2	Hibs	0

Despite the defeat, Rangers remained top of the league, but only just. One point behind were Kilmarnock, followed by Partick Thistle and Dunfermline on eight points.

The top of the table looked like this:

	P	W	D	L	F	A	Pt
Rangers	6	5	0	1	23	9	10
Kilmarnock	6	3	3	0	10	7	9
Patrick Th.	6	4	0	2	11	10	8
Dunfermline	6	3	2	1	13	12	8

Hearts went out of the European Cup to Benfica after a second leg defeat before 33,000 spectators in Portugal by 3-0. Scorers for Benfica were Aguas, Agusta and Colunna, giving them a 5-1 aggregate win.

● SAMMY BAIRD . . . sold to Hibs.

Celtic re-signed former favourite, Willie Fernie from Middlesbrough for an undisclosed fee. The striker had left the Parkhead men three years previously and his return was popular with the fans.

Rangers, meanwhile, sold 30-year-old inside forward, Sammy Baird, to Hibernian for £5,000.

Fifers are hit for six

October 2-8, 1935

DUNFERMLINE took a two goal lead on October 5 at Ibrox — but ended up losing 6-2!

Eight minutes had gone when Dobson shot the Fifers into the lead. McGowan then made it 2-0 in the 15th minute with a header.

Bob McPhail, however, brought the Ibrox side back into the game with a 21st minute header and, Alex Venters levelled the match with a 40th minute shot.

And, in a sensational burst McPhail scored his second in the 44th minute to give Rangers the lead.

Torry Gillick then joined the list of scorers with a fine 61st minute shot. The Rangers forward got his second four minutes later to make it 5-2, and Bobby Main completed the scoring in the 71st minute.

RANGERS: Dawson, Gray, McDonald, Meiklejohn, McKillop, Winning, Main, Venters, Gillick, McPhail, Kinnear.

Dunfermline: Leggat, Johnman, Warden, Bolt, Crawford, Donald, Dobson, Syme, McGowan, Thomson, Murray.

The top of the First Division looked like this:

	P	W	D	F	A	Pt
Celtic	11	9	1	31	12	19
Aberdeen	11	9	1	32	14	19
Rangers	11	8	2	39	15	18
Hearts	11	6	2	27	17	14

On the same day Scotland drew 1-1 with Wales at Ninian Park, Cardiff. The game, played to commemorate the Jubilee year, saw Phillips score for Wales in the 42nd minute and Duncan for Scotland in the 35th minute. George Brown and Jimmy Simpson represented Rangers.

Late show keeps Rangers on top

October 2-8, 1980

A LATE headed goal from Colin McAdam kept Rangers at the top of the Premier League this week five years ago.

The Light Blues were at Cappielow on Saturday, October 4 to face Morton and they looked to be struggling as the Greenock side took a 2-0 lead inside the opening half-hour.

In the 14th minute, Drew Busby opened the scoring when he slammed home a cross from Andy Ritchie and, in the 28th minute, Ritchie himself scored from the penalty-spot after Colin Jackson had tripped John McNeil in the box.

Five minutes from half-time, Rangers pulled a goal back with a penalty when Alex Miller gave Roy Baines no chance after Joe McLaughlin had handled a netbound Jim Bett header. Then, with two minutes of the match left, Colin McAdam rose to head home a Tommy McLean free-kick to earn Rangers a vital point.

MORTON: Baines, Hayes, Holmes, Rooney, McLaughlin, Orr, McNeil, Cochrane, Thomson, Busby, Ritchie. Subs: Tolmie (for Ritchie) and McLaren (not used).

RANGERS: McCloy, Jardine, Miller, D. Johnstone, Jackson, Bett, Cooper, McLean, McAdam, Redford, MacDonald. Subs: Stevens (for Cooper) and W. Johnston (for MacDonald).

The other Premier League results that day were:

Celtic	2	Dundee Utd	0
Hearts	0	Aberdeen	1
Kilmarnock	1	St Mirren	6
P. Thistle	2	Airdrie	1

In the Premier Reserve League, Gordon Dalziel slammed in four goals as Rangers cruised to a 6-0 victory against Morton at Ibrox. Steve Richardson and Alex Forsyth were the Light Blues other scorers.

Rangers 6

Calton B.C. 1

CALTON made a mistake on September 22 — they opened the scoring! As Rangers suffered frustration time after time because of Calton's offside tactics, Calton ran up the park and scored in the 40th minute.

However, Rangers blasted back in the second half of this League Cup sectional tie at Crownpoint Sports Centre, Glasgow.

They equalised six minutes after the restart. Leslie McGibbon scored the first of what was to be an excellent hat-trick with a close-in shot.

Great

Four minutes later and it was 2-1, McGibbon running on to a Clarke chip and slotting past the keeper.

Dougie Bruce added a third with a fine run and shot in the 59th minute.

Derek Rae entered the score-sheet moments later with a great lob, and it was left to Billy Rannachan to complete the scoring with the goal of the match.

The full back ran the full length of the field, beating four men, and, from 12 yards out on the left wing, he sent in an unstoppable shot.

RANGERS: Inglis, Ure, Rannachan, McWilliams, Johnstone, Williamson, Bruce, Rae, Clarke, McGibbon, Hendry. Sub: Campbell (for Hendry).

Battling Rangers

RANGERS Amateurs under-13's made a winning start to their league campaign on Sunday, September 15 when they defeated highly-rated Eastercraigs at Cowlairs.

The young Light Blues producd a batttling performance in difficult windy conditions and coach Willie Gunn was full of praise for the way his players came back from 2-0 down to take two points.

He said: "The boys have made a marvellous start to the season having reached the League Cup semi-finals and now taking two points from their first league game."

The only goal of a hard-fought first half was scored in the 10th minute by Eastercraigs when Rangers keeper Stuart McInnes was deceived by a long range shot.

Bad

Ten minutes into the second half, it looked bad for the Light Blues when the visitors netted a second goal from the penalty-spot after McInnes had brought down an Eastercraigs striker.

Five minutes later, however, Rangers were back in the match. Thomas Elvin took a corner on the right and the ball fell perfectly for Bryce Redburn to head home from six yards.

And, in the 54th minute, the Light Blues equalised. Barry Ross held off two challenges on a strong run down the left before cutting inside the penalty-area and cracking a good left foot shot past the Eastercraigs keeper from 12 yards.

Five minutes later, Rangers capped a great fightback when they took the lead. Jason Meiklejohn was the marksman this time.

It looked as though the Light Blues would have to settle for a point when Eastercraigs made it 3-3 in the 63rd minute but two minutes later Rangers scored the winner.

Joe Verhees launched a long throw-in into the penalty-area and Jason Meiklejohn beat the Eastercraigs centre-half to head home

RANGERS: McInnes, Dickens,Howie, Meldrum, Redburn, Verhees, Mahood, Elvin, Grant, Meiklejohn, Ross. Subs: Orr (for Grant 35 min.) and Devine (for Dickens 45).

Robert's a VIP

★ Robert Crawford from Port Glasgow received the VIP treatment from the 'News' recently when we took him out to lunch with his favourite Rangers player Iain Ferguson.

The 16-year-old won the competition in last year's Rangers News Annual and his prize was a trip to the Sherbrook Castle Hotel with Fergie for the meal of his choice. Robert was also shown round Ibrox.

RAIN IN SPAIN!

That's Craig's birthday wish

THERE IS absolutely no truth in the rumour that Craig Paterson is considering taking up a second career in mud-wrestling.

Mind you, after the first leg of Rangers' UEFA Cup first round tie against Athletico Osasuna at Ibrox, the Light Blues skipper is already something of an expert at the sport!

Craig, of course, dived headlong into the sodden ground at Ibrox on that incredible night of torrential rain to give Rangers the crucial 1-0 lead they have taken to Pamplona with them for the second leg.

And in front of 26,000 fanatical Spanish fans in the Sadar Stadium tonight, Craig hopes to celebrate his birthday by netting another goal.

• The draw for the second round of all three European tournaments will be made in Switzerland on Friday.

Ruined

The big centre-half is 26-years-old today and nothing would make him happier than if it rained again when Rangers go out to protect their lead against Osasuna this evening.

Craig told the 'News': "I know the conditions at Ibrox ruined the game as a spectacle for the fans, but from a defender's point of view I've got to say I would be delighted if it was the same in Pamplona.

"No doubt it will be completely the opposite, but you never know. The heavy conditions mean that defences have an easier job and it's extremely difficult for strikers.

"Everyone at Ibrox, though, is confident we can reach the second round. Osasuna certainly looked a well-organised side at Ibrox but they don't seem to have any outstanding players.

"Having said that, it was difficult to make any sort of judgement in those conditions. Their big striker Orejuela looked quite handy and although I handled him quite easily at Ibrox, he'll obviously be a tougher proposition on his home ground.

Vital

"The match really coundn't be more imporant to us. It's absolutely vital for Rangers to do well in Europe. We have a lot of young players in the squad and for them to gain the necessary experience we have to do better than just reach the second round every season.

"I think the key weapon for us could be Derek Johnstone if he has recovered from injury in time. He gave them a lot of bother in the air when he came on last time and that could be their weakness.

"We will just have to be patient. They will be going all out in front of their own fans and we will have to make the most of the chances we get. But I'm confident we will get through."

• CRAIG PATERSON . . . looking for a special birthday present in Spain.
